

GAMEBANG AND THE END OF FEMBOYS

ANOTHER ABSOLUTE FUCKING EPIC

Recap of lore:

Gamebang was depressed about Astolfo dying. He tried to get fucked by a dog but instead ended up with a felony. He got fucked in prison and it was good but he was still sad about Astolfo until [Insert GenshinPlace member] helped him find the courage to move on and fuck Astolfo's skeletal remains. So Gamebang is no longer depressed. Then it was revealed [Insert GenshinPlace member] escaped prison. Police came to arrest Gamebang for the dog thing and apparently conspiring against the government. Before he could get arrested, however, he was saved by [Insert GenshinPlace member].

He was told they were going to war.

Keep reading for the absolute fucking epic continuation to the story.

Chapter 1

The night shines with stars. There's so little light in our city. It's all silent. The only sounds being heard are the birds in the sky and the helicopters chasing my ass.

"What the hell is going on!?" I ask [Insert GenshinPlace Member] while running as fast as I can. The sounds of the military behind me getting louder and louder. I'm not running fast enough. For the first time, I wished that I did exercise.

"I'll explain later! We just gotta lose them first!" [Insert GenshinPlace Member] said to me, running faster than me. That bastard, if only they weren't better than me in every way.

I see [Insert GenshinPlace member] take out a shotgun and looks behind them. They fire away and manage to hit a few people and vehicles. I catch up to them and they grab the inside of their jacket and grab a pistol. They throw the pistol to me and I catch it, oh hell yeah.

I load up, ready for blood. I shoot and shoot, aiming for the people. They shoot back, but they keep missing me. To be fair, I keep missing as well. I continue shooting until I run out of ammo. Oh fuck. [Insert GenshinPlace member] goes into their jacket again and throws a magazine at me. I decide it's time to do something epic and as they throw the magazine I prepare my gun to catch it perfectly into where it's supposed to go and it works and I lied. I just caught it with my hand and reloaded the normal way. As I reload, I look to [Insert GenshinPlace member]. They stop running and just aim for a few seconds. Then they shoot a perfect hit into one of the helicopters' front, causing death to the one controlling it. The helicopter falls down and crashes on the people chasing us on ground. [Insert GenshinPlace member] continues running while an explosion erupts behind us.

I look in front of me to see another helicopter, at first I think we got surrounded and are absolutely fucked, but then [Insert GenshinPlace member] yells out to me.

"There it is! Get to that heli!"

I have no idea what is happening but my adrenaline is at its fucking peak.

The helicopter lands in front of us. On its exterior is a logo I recognize. A round Poland with eyes next to a Hu Tao ghost. Jesus fucking Christ, it's PolandBall.

We get into the helicopter and inside are more reliable weapons. I look to the person driving this thing and my mind is blown to see its Michael Jackson.

"Michael!" I say to him "Long time no see! Haven't seen you since you gave me the worst fucking advice ever to leave Astolfo alone!"

"Oh yeah, sorry about that." Michael responds "Anyway, we're heading to base swiftly. Take out the enemy while we're heading."

I look outside the heli, making sure not to fall. That's a shit ton of helicopters and a huge jet. I look to my left and [Insert GenshinPlace member] is holding a fucking bazooka. I look back to the jet and see it just shot a missile at us. [Insert GenshinPlace member] aims and shoots his bazooka at the missile. They both hit and my eyes are greeted with light. The explosion was so huge and close to us that I am now blind, well, at least I felt blind. A few seconds later I would see I'm not blind and immediately get my own shotgun to shoot the helicopters. I shoot a few and they fall to the ground, crashing and exploding. Below me in a fiery pit I have created, and in front of me are fireworks of flame, and behind me is Michael Jackson singing "Smooth Criminal" while this all happens. OH. HELL. YEAH.

"There's the forest!" Michael said, pointing to the forest below us "We're not gonna land smoothly, but we'll still need to run fast once on ground! Get to base as fast as possible!"

We move closer and closer to the ground. I hear a loud sound heading towards us, it's another missile.

"Shit! I'm out of ammunition for the bazooka!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] said "We gotta jump off! That thing is gonna kill us!"

Michael leaves his seat and gives us parachutes. We stand and look below. And then as the missile is about to hit us, we jump off the helicopter. We fall to the ground as an explosion erupts from above. We get close to the ground, we open our parachutes to land safely.

We finally get to solid ground.

"Hurry! They're gonna find us!" Michael said to us.

We run like it was the end of the world, I follow [Insert GenshinPlace member] and Michael since they seem to know where to go. We end up at a tree. [Insert GenshinPlace member] puts his hand on the wood and a glow can be seen on the tree's roots.

Then a hole opens next to me. Inside was darkness, with small illuminations of blue lines leading to the bottom.

"Get in, Gamebang." [Insert GenshinPlace member] said to me. I do as they command and jump inside the hole like Mario jumping inside a warp pipe.

I fall for what seemed like 2 minutes, staring at nothing but blue lights. Then I feel water for a split second on my feet. I crash into a pool and the others followed. I leave underwater and breathe. Fucking hell, my clothes are wet and I just cleaned them after fucking Astolfo's skeletal remains. I look in front of me to see a group of people I don't know. I only recognize one of them. It's Barack Obama.

"Is that the final person?" Obama asked Michael.

"Yes sir. Gamebang is the final one. Everyone is finally here." Michael responded.

"Great."

Obama spoke.

"It's time to save all femboys."

Chapter 2

Obama spoke to us all.

"Operation: Dick Deletion. An operation led by the UN to kill every femboy in the entire world. This project had been in the works since the American Revolution. The main goal is to release a gas throughout the entire globe and let the skin of femboys make contact with it. By making contact, their heads will explode into blood. The government will hide the murders of these femboys through memory manipulation to the entire non femboy population. In the end, it will seem like nothing had happened. Our goal here at PolandBall is to stop this inhumane genocide! I brought all of you here today to fight for freedom!"

We all stand with guns in hand. Shocked by what we heard.

"Why does the government want to kill all femboys?" Morbius asked Obama.

"We do not know the reason. But we suspect we'll find it soon as we reveal our process to stop this operation." Obama responded.

Obama presses a button on the wall and the lights reveal in front of us a giant glowing blue cube.

"This is a time machine!" Obama stated "You will all have 3 chances to change history! Your 3 chances are on these particular pieces of history! The day Hitler and Stalin had sex for the last time, the time King Henry the 8th would crash into Anne of Cleaves' place dressed a homeless man thinking that will turn her on, and the time George Washington got pegged by his own slaves. Change one of these, you saved the world. You fail one of these, you go to another event. You fail all of these, we're doomed. The main thing you have to change within these historical events are the devices hidden within these events. Destroy one of those devices and you just saved all femboys in the modern day."

My mind thought two things during this...

One, Venti's life is on the line and if I don't succeed he will die and I will have nothing to live for anymore.

Second, oh fuck I'm about to change history. One small action can change everything. I think of all the ways a single step can change how 9/11 happened. I get dizzy from this thought and nearly pass out until [Insert GenshinPlace member] slapped my face.

"Get it together!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] said to me "You can't save Venti if you're being a pussy!"

Fuck. They're right.

Obama speaks once again.

"I have gathered you five to use the time machine to save all femboys. [Insert GenshinPlace member], Gamebang, Michael Jackson, Morbius, and Eren Yeager. All of you will bear the responsibility to change history and save the world. I wish you all nothing but good luck in your adventures."

The time machine's entrance opens.

"The world is counting on all of you. Now get in..." Obama said.

We all walk and get inside the time machine. We all hold various weapons that will help us. Michael prepares to launch us into our first historical event.

Michael speaks.

"We are now headed to... The last time Hitler and Stalin had sex."

Michael pushes the button and we all hear the sounds of engines running.

It wasn't long before our vision was consumed by light.

The adventure begins.

Chapter 3

"You are mein... And I am yours..." Hitler whispered inside Stalin's ear.

"What will the public think of this? We can't just reveal to them this entire war was a way for us to satisfy our fetishes..." Stalin said.

"We don't have to." Hitler responded in a soothing, reassuring tone "No one has to know but us."

Hitler grabbed Stalin's penis and started jerking him off. They both kissed and it felt like no one in the world existed except them. Their saliva combined into one and both drank from it. Stalin then cummed. Hitler's hand covered with the children of Stalin. Hitler grabbed some of the semen and fingered himself with it. He then took the finger he used to pleasure his ass and made Stalin suck it. Stalin's mind raced as he never thought the taste of his cum and Hitler's asshole tasted so marvelous.

Me and the group watch as this happens. Eren had his dick out, jerking off to this sight. Eren then climaxed.

"Fucking finally." Morbius said "Let's get this device."

We sneak around the place, looking for this device. We don't know what it looks like though. Eren called us at the back to see what he thought was the device.

It was a butt plug with a sign that says reads...

"Femboy killer, buttplug. Made since the American Revolution."

Okay... The device is a sex toy. Now we know what it looks like.

[Insert GenshinPlace member] feels the buttplug. They immediately realize that it's most likely been inside Hitler and Stalin. They start gagging.

Suddenly, we hear footsteps. We all frantically look for a hiding spot but there's none. We're fucked.

"I can't wait to get that buttplug inside both of us at the same time again- WHO ARE YOU GUYS!?" Stalin saw us. Five men with guns.

And we saw them. Two leaders naked and their assholes leaking piss and cum.

"Hitler! They're trying to destroy the femboy killer buttplug 3000!" Stalin yelled out. Fucking hell, it has a name...

As we try to shoot the device, our guns are taken away by a tentacle. I look behind and see Hitler's penis turn into 8 tentacles that look like it came from an octopus and Stalin's asshole shit out a grenade.

"What the fuck." I said, weirdly erect.

Hitler's dick tentacles take the device away from us before we can even touch it. Hitler secures it inside his asshole. We all look to the grenade, 5 seconds till explosion. We can't do anything. We don't have enough time to get the device out of Hitler's ass. We also don't have time to fight Hitler and Stalin.

"Oh fuck this!" Eren said. He ran to the time machine. We followed. There ain't no way we are winning this. We run to the time machine as Hitler and Stalin chase us.

We all get inside the time machine except Michael.

"Michael hurry!" I said.

"Hold on! My shoe's untied-" Michael's words are cut off as a tentacle pierced his chest. We immediately close the entrance and Morbius sets up the next destination.

The last thing I heard before my vision turned to light was the grenade explosion.

I mourned.

"Michael..."

Chapter 4

Slow strokes, up and down. Slow and steady, in and out. A mighty obese figure was going at it. King Henry the 8th was simultaneously jerking his penis and fingering his ass at the same time. Dressed in the clothing of the homeless, he had to fuck a woman to get these clothes. Henry never wanted to fuck. He wanted to be fucked. His clothing smelled of piss and sweat and pork, although that may just be Henry and not the clothes.

Tonight, Henry is going inside the place Anne of Cleves resides in. He is supposed to wed her as his next wife. Hopefully Henry won't have to murder this one.

History stated that the main reason Henry neglected his wives was that they couldn't produce male heirs. This is a lie. The true reason was that they could never peg him like a man. Henry wanted to feel his ass destroyed beyond oblivion. Ever since the Pope fucked him for fifty elephants, Henry wanted more than elephants. He often dreamed of being in a relationship with the Pope, getting fucked in the butt 24/7. But due to political complications and how much of a fuckboy the Pope was, this was only a dream for Henry.

Right now, as he is prepared to meet Anne of Cleves, Henry is taking a quick session to pleasure himself. On the outside, it may look like he's just using both hands for his rod and his asshole. But inside Henry's head was the thing he was desperate for.

"Pope... Please fuck me like it's judgement day..." Henry said to the Pope.

"Gladly... I will meet the Lord with you, King Henry." The Pope said.

Henry laid in doggystyle position, exposing his obese ass and his open asshole. The Pope brought out his Holy rod. He teased Henry's hole for a little while before slowly putting it inside. Henry made moans a woman in a fake porno would make. The Pope didn't make sounds, he just fucked. That's what Henry wanted, it made him feel like an object not worth making sound over. The Pope kept fucking and fucking, faster each stroke, harder each slam to the ass, there was no mercy from the Lord. The Pope slapped Henry's obese ass, then punched it, then used his nails to claw skin off. The pain. The pain felt so good. Henry was in heaven, God had given him the reward he deserved for murdering his wives. Henry wanted more. He wanted it all. He wanted more than what was possible. He wanted everything.

Then they both came. Henry's eyes closed for a minute and then opened. What he saw wasn't the Church, but his dirty bedroom. Henry's tears began to fall as he realized it was all fantasy. Again, it was nothing but an impossible dream.

Henry didn't bother to clean himself. He left his fingers with his shit and blood and cum. He headed off to the place Anne of Cleves was. Was she gonna peg him like he wanted her to? Who knows...

"Only Ymir knows."

"What?" I responded to Eren's weird statement.

"Sorry. Force of habit." He responded.

[Insert GenshinPlace member] looked sad. I understood his feeling. I already miss Michael. He was like a second brother to me. Even though he offered me the worst fucking advice ever back when Astolfo was about to commit suicide, he paved the way to an absolute epic story.

I look to my left and see Morbius finish his thing.

"Hey, what did you see inside Henry's mind. Did it contain the location to our device?" I asked Morbius.

"Oh... Oh fuck no. Oh god no. Why did you make me look in there. Oh my god... Why did he want his skin clawed off!? What the fuck!? I knew the guy was an incel but I never knew that this...!"

"Morbius! Calm down! What happened?"

"Nothing... I just... He's going to Anne of Cleves' location. Which is some castle I can't remember the name of. My Morb Ghosts searched his dirty bedroom and we found buttplugs but not the buttplug we actually need."

"So we're going to follow Henry?"

"Yes. Come on gang, let's get morbing."

Something about his words bring me absolute fucking orgasms.

Anyway, we follow Henry to the castle. It was a slow ride since the man was so obese that even his carriage moved like a snail. He was so slow I wouldn't be surprised we were too late to stop all femboys dying. But we did reach the castle.

[Insert GenshinPlace member] looked through the windows.

"We might need some noble clothing to get in."

As he said that, we all saw four noblemen walk outside the castle to have a good ol gangbang in secret. This was our chance.

We follow them to their tent. The shadows inside show that they're all kissing and jerking each other off. They're also all men, so I was rock hard.

"Hey!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] slapped my hand. "Why now!? We're trying to save the world here!"

Damn it. If only the contact of skin between me and [Insert GenshinPlace member] didn't happen. I'd still be hard. Damn you.

They all have seemed to finish their fuck session rather quickly and fell asleep as they all climaxed. It's our chance to steal their clothes.

We successfully changed clothing and could now walk into the castle. The only issue is that the people fucking were actually women. They just had dildos on so they could all fuck each other like men.

So we walked into this place as proud gorgeous ladies.

People were staring at our beauty. Some had the eyes of lust. I couldn't get less excited to be in such a position. I'm just imagining what they'll do to me once I enter the bathroom. So many vile things... Wait. They're only looking at me because they think I'm a girl... So... What do I do about my penis? I look to Morbius for help.

"Hey... Can you turn me into a woman?"

"Gamebang, what the fuck."

"Only for tonight! Two hours max! Please!"

"Fucking hell, fine. If it will get you to stop being horny in our mission."

Morbius snaps his fingers and suddenly I don't feel my boner, I feel wet. I look to my chest...

"Hey... Can you make my boobs bigger? Medium size."

"Jesus..." Morbius snapped his fingers once again and I felt some big pieces of fat attach to my chest. I was so ready for the fucking.

"Oh no... [Insert GenshinPlace member]!" I said out loud, enough for most people to hear me. "I need to go piss like a woman!"

[Insert GenshinPlace member] looked at me.

"Why do you have boobs."

I ignore their question and head to the bathrooms. Oh hell yeah.

While I head to the bathrooms, Eren calls the others.

"Guys! I found it!" Eren claimed. The others looked to where Eren pointed and there it was... The buttplug we were looking for.

"Well, let's finally end this." Morbius said. He had his Morb destroyer powers ready to Morb the fuck out of this buttplug.

Then...

"WHAT THE-"

A blast of energy crashed upon Morbius, preventing the destruction of the buttplug. He looked to see who caused this attack.

"Anti Morbius!?"

"Yes! It is I! Your mortal enemy! I have worked with the government to destroy all femboys!"

"You sick unmorbed fuck..."

Morbius morb blasted himself to Anti Morbius with a morb punch. But his morb punch was outmorbed by Anti Morbius, who had a bigger morb punch. Anti Morbius let out his morb punch but Morbius morbed a morb shield and outmorbed and stopped the morb punch. The impact was mor(b)e than anything they could handle.

"Fuck! I can't hold back anymore!" Morbius exclaimed. "IT'S MORBIN TIME!"

Morbius transformed into a giant hunky man with 16 abs and oily skin. Anti Morbius was shocked at the sight.

"HOW!?" Anti Morbius said. "HOW COULD YOU OUTMORB ME LIKE THIS!?"

"You are nothing like me... This entire battle truly was a Morbius... But there is only one Morbius... And it is I! I AM MORBIUS!"

"NOOOOO!!!" Anti Morbius yelled out. "I CAN'T LET YOU WIN!"

Anti Morbius grabbed the buttplug and made it disappear out of thin air.

"Shit! Where did you put it!?"

Anti Morbius, in his dying breath. "In... The Blockchain..."

Morbius's eyes widened to shock. "YOU USED IT TO INVEST INTO NFTS!? NO! WE LOST IT! NOOOOOOO!!!"

Morbius cried out... But then he noticed his hand fading away.

Eren saw this. "Morbius! What's happening!"

"I seem to have used all my morb... I can't live without the morb..."

"No... There has to be a way! We gotta-"

"There's nothing you can do... This is it..."

Morbius looked to the stars.

"This has truly been a Morbius..."

He looked to Eren.

"Keep morbing... Till the end..."

"NOOOOO!!" Eren cried as he watched Morbius's body explode into blood.

"No... Morbius... What a man you are... I won't let this sacrifice go to waste..." Eren said.

[Insert GenshinPlace member] walked into the room with a glass of wine.

"What in the fuck."

Meanwhile...

I walk into the bathroom. I know what's about to happen. My new found vagina throbs at the thought. I hope there's more than 5 men coming in here.

I look into the mirror and see how goddamn gorgeous I look. I'd fuck myself if I could. My long dazzling hair is perfect for a big strong man to pull while railing the fuck out of me.

I go into one of the stalls and hear a sound behind me.

"Oh. Malady... You're in the boys restroom..."

As intended.

"Oh is that so? I'm so sorry... I'm a bit drunk tonight!"

Just act submissive and breedable. Watching all that anime led you to this moment. I must act like an anime girl.

"Looks like I'll be going now! Sorry for the mistake!" I said before walking towards the ten buff oily men, acting like I'm going outside the bathroom. One of them grab my hand, preventing me from walking any further. The man whispers into my ear.

"Hey hey... Why not show us what you're made of..."

Oh fuck oh fuck it's finally happening.

"O-Oh no! This isn't what I think it is! Right!?"

Just act submissive, just act submissive, just act submissive, just act submissive.

The ten men all grab me by different body parts. Legs, arms, head, breasts, hair. They're carrying me around like a doll, it feels so good to be used like this...

They take my body and throw it against the wall. The impact felt like 10 punches at once. So good... I want more... I want to be used more...

"O-Oh no! What a-are you doing!? Please don't take my clothes off and reveal my breasts! Please don't take your dicks out and put each one in different holes of my body! That would be very bad! Please don't look at my breasts! I totally don't want this!"

My acting is so good.

"You heard her, boys! She doesn't want this! Strip her!"

"O-Oh no!"

They violently rip off my clothes and I am left on the floor, naked and cold. It feels amazing, to be left cornered in such a position. Helpless. Like an ant among humans, I am the weak. And it feels great being used.

The ten men take off their pants and reveal their giant rods in front of my very eyes. They forcefully put their rods in different parts of my body.

One between my breasts, two inside my mouth, two inside my vagina, two inside my ass, and one inside my bellybutton. It feels so good. I feel like an object, a toy serving its very purpose. It feels so great to be played with. I feel each of their rods going faster and faster within me. I feel their twitching and throbbing, each individual drop of pre-cum. Each stroke is one gigantic punch of pleasure. If there truly was heaven, this was it.

Each second, my mind goes more and more blank. My mind is breaking from how amazing this feels. I can't think of anything else anymore but their dicks. I only think about their dicks. It's like I'm being fucked into a vegetative state. That's also good, I won't be able to even defend myself or even think for myself. I will only be left thinking and feeling dick. I want more of their dicks. I want more. Please... PLEASE! GIVE ME ALL OF IT! MORE MORE MORE. FASTER. HARDER. SHOW ME NO MERCY. RELEASE IT ALL INSIDE ME. FILL MY ENTIRE BODY WITH ALL OF YOU. I WANT IT ALL. I WANT IT ALL. I WANT IT ALL. I WANT IT ALL. I WANT IT ALL. I WANT IT ALL. I WANT IT ALL. I WANT IT ALL.

YES, I FEEL THEIR CLIMAX COMING! I CAN FEEL IT, CLOSER AND CLOSER! I CAN FEEL IT! THERE IT IS! THEY'RE CUMMING! YES!

NYAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!!

Ah... Ah... I can't breathe... It's so much... I'm filled with all of them... I feel like my blood has been replaced with their cum. I'm so sore I can't move. As they take all their dicks out of me, I lay on the ground, satisfied, knowing I was good for them.

They all stare at me for a little while and start jerking off to the mere sight of my helpless, immovable body. They all cum again. It all rains on me. I'm covered in everything...

Yes... This was fine... This was amazing...

The ten buff oily men leave the room after cleaning themselves. I still lay on the floor, twisted and happy beyond relief. I notice a weird feeling on my bottom. Oh... My penis is back. I'm back to being a guy.

It was fun while it lasted...

After what seemed like an eternity, I finally get up and clean myself. Shame I have to clean off all this semen.

But I still have to save Venti.

I walk back outside the bathroom. Have the others destroyed the device yet?

Oh wait, there they are. Running towards me.

"So... Did we save the world?" I asked.

"No... Morbius died for our sake... We couldn't destroy it... We need to go to the last destination." Eren said.

"Last...? This... This is our last chance to save the world?"

"Gamebang... We need to fully work together as a team. This is our only opportunity left. If this fails then we're doomed!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] told me.

Yes... We need to make this work. We walk back to the time machine.

It hadn't dawned on me that much during this entire adventure... If I fail... Venti will actually die. The love of my life. The one person I live for... All gone.

I feel my hands shiver at the thought of going one day without Venti's wind. Fear. I only feel fear. I have never felt so afraid in my life. If this doesn't work, everything I ever had.

It will be over.

No more fucking around. Let's end this.

Chapter 5

George Washington. Who could ever forget what he has done for America.

But everyone forgot about Heather, his slave.

And his one true love.

George never treated Heather like a slave. He treated her like any other woman. He was a gentleman to her. He brought her food, love, everything you could ever want from a man.

He also encouraged her to peg him randomly throughout the day. Be on top while George was on bottom. He didn't want her to use a normal dildo, he wanted her to use a shotgun.

He loved the risk.

Heather feared for the day when she was fucking George with a shotgun and accidentally pulled the trigger. Who knows when that day would come.

It was another day, George treated Heather to some breakfast. George was about to head off to the battlefield soon, so he wanted one last pegging from her.

Me, [Insert GenshinPlace member], and Eren Yeager were spying on them while they were going at it.

When we first arrived, Eren was disgusted by George's actions, but he was more disgusted with the slave. He doesn't like people who aren't free like him.

But as we watched their actions, Eren became less disgusted and more... Sentimental.

"The pegging... George's moans... It reminds me... Of me."

My eyes widen. "Eren what the fuck."

"I remember... When me and Armin had hot paths sex. He fucked me better than Reiner. It was... That scenery..."

"Eren, what the fuck are you saying."

"I miss Armin... I miss his penis... I miss his touch..."

"Eren, I thought you liked that Asian Step sister of yours."

"Oh... Did I say that? Forget about it."

"Bro, why did you lie."

"I don't know why I did it... But I wanted to... I had to... At any cost."

Eren's smile from these memories soon faded.

"I wanted to be with Armin... But... When I saw him get pegged by Annie... I was... So disappointed. I just wanted to wipe it all away..."

"Eren, focus. Who knows? Maybe this is for the best. Armin would find someone else better."

Eren's eyes widened with anger and sadness as he dropped to the ground and yelled out.

"I DON'T WANT THAT! ARMIN FINDING ANOTHER MAN!? I WANT HIM TO PEG ME FOR THE REST OF MY LIFE! EVEN IF I DIE, EVEN AFTER I DIE! I WANT TO BE PEGGED BY HIM FOR A LONG TIME! FOR 10 YEARS AT LEAST!"

Fuck.

They heard his pathetic cries, didn't they.

[Insert GenshinPlace member] ran from the scene to find the buttplug. Me and Eren were in charge to fight off George. We hear his footsteps.

"Eren! Get back up! George is coming here!"

"When I looked into the path... I couldn't believe it, but... Armin loved Farmer-kun..."

"Eren, there are much bigger things at stake!"

As I was trying to lift him up, I look to my right. There he was, George Washington.

"George..."

"Oh..."

"Listen, we are just-"

"Are you looking for this?" George held up the buttplug we were looking for.

"Y-Yes! But... Why do you-"

George's hand let go of the buttplug and onto the ground. It shatters into pieces.

"... What? Why did you..."

George ignored me as he walked to his cabinet and grabbed something.

It's... Another buttplug?

"Did you really think that destroying one was enough? No. There's more of these everywhere. Around the world... One doesn't mean anything."

My hands shivered in fear.

"W-What?"

"The government always plans ahead for people like you. If you want to destroy all devices, you will need to destroy the entire world."

"No... This... It was all gonna be for nothing?"

"This is an operation that needs to succeed... Do you know what will happen if you let the femboys live?"

"You're gonna kill millions of innocents!"

"Them existing is gonna cause much more danger! Femboys have a power no ordinary human has, an energy only they possess. That's the femboy energy. Something is coming and it wants all of that energy. Whatever that something is, we cannot allow it to win!"

"So your proposal is genocide."

"It's the only way."

"You're mad!"

"You don't even know what will happen if you let them live! The end! The end will happen! You are the villains!"

We both stare at each other with murderous intent.

"Whatever... You can't stop our operation. All femboys will die. We made it impossible to stop... So you might as well go home."

George walked away from us.

My heart pounds faster than anything before, my body shakes in fear, my vision is blacking out, my chest is heavy, I can't breathe, I can't breathe, I can't...

Venti.

No. No no no...

"[Insert GenshinPlace member]! We need to get back to the present! It was all for nothing!"

"Gamebang?"

"I NEED TO SEE VENTI!"

Chapter 6

Fuck the Time machine. Fuck Obama. I need to get back to Venti. Obama said that in the gas that's gonna kill all femboys is about to be released within an hour. I cannot stop it anymore, so I might as well savor my last moments with him...

I see our door, the house we bought together and stayed in ever since. The flowers we watered together. The two chairs in our front yard where we used to sit down and just watch the stars with each other. I slam through the door and inside the home.

I see the kitchen where Venti would always prepare breakfast for me. I see the couch where I laid on Venti's shoulder when I was grieving for Astolfo. I see the carpet I spilled juice on and constantly worried if Venti was gonna be mad at me for not cleaning only for him to help me clean such a small spot on the floor. And walking down the stairs, I saw him. I ran to him and embraced him.

"Babe? It's so late, why are you up? Why are you hugging so tight?"

I sighed.

"I want to spend all of my time with you. No one else but you."

"Gamebang, what happened?"

"I love you more than life itself. I will never make sense of why you chose me but I will always be grateful. I love you, Venti. I love you."

"Gamebang, you're gonna have to tell me why this all of a sudden..."

Tears drop from my face. I want to hold him forever. I look at his face... I kiss his lips. We kiss for what felt like eternity. It felt like we were the only two people in the entire world. I wanted us to be the only two people in the entire world.

I don't wanna let go.

"Gamebang..." Venti said. "I know whatever is going on... I feel as if you gave up."

"It just feels so hopeless."

"Nothing is impossible. It will be impossible if you don't keep trying and trying. Don't give up hope now. You still have time for whatever you're going through, right?"

"But I wasted all my chances..."

"Gamebang..."

Venti held my hand and held it tightly before slowly letting it go.

"It doesn't matter how tight you hold on to things, they'll still just slip right through your fingers. You will always make mistakes and that's okay. Even if they slip through, they will never leave your heart. Stop giving up after one mistake and give up when you die. You have a dream, achieve it."

The wind blew within the room and it was so strong it opened the door to the outside. I looked behind to see the door open and look back to Venti. He nods to me.

He's right. I cannot give up now. I have people to protect, I have people I love, people I love more than anything. I should not give up easily for them. I won't.

And so I ran out of the house.

As I run, I call [Insert GenshinPlace member] on my phone.

"Where is the gas getting released!?"

"The White House roof."

"Is that it!?"

"Yeah?"

"Then all we need to do is destroy that machine. It doesn't matter how many buttplugs we destroy, it all connects to that one gas releaser and destroying it means destroying the entire operation!"

"Finally, you came to your senses."

A PolandBall helicopter landed in front of me with [Insert GenshinPlace member] inside.

"Let's finally end this."

We fly to the White House, on the roof is exactly what we are looking for. A sphere that is spinning to prepare releasing the gas. On top of the sphere, however, was something I cannot identify. All I see is a ray of light. I look closer into that light and see it's not just light, it has the shape of a person.

Me and [Insert GenshinPlace member] jump off the heli with guns in hand. We land and start shooting the guards. The helicopter we jumped off crashes onto another helicopter in the sky and both fall to the ground, creating an explosion and rained fire on us all.

"Get to the machine! I'll handle the others!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] said. I followed orders.

Climbing the stairs to the sphere, enemies would come out of nowhere and start shooting me. I run and run, trying to dodge.

My fighting skills aren't good, so I get my arm shot a couple times but I still manage to kill my obstacles. I look at the sphere and wonder how I gotta destroy this thing. Then I see a grenade land in front of me, I immediately hide behind the sphere and hear it explode. I see a helicopter aiming a missile at me, it shoots and I dodge it. As a result, it lands on the sphere. I look at the sphere and see cracks. There's my answer.

A helicopter lands in front of me and enemies come out shooting at me. They shoot my leg and I fall to the ground, but thankfully, I shoot them dead. Using all my strength of my shot leg, I get to the helicopter and pilot it. And so I did.

I fly and aim the missiles at the sphere, I managed to hit it about three times before another helicopter attacks me. I ready and throw a grenade to the other helicopter and back away, it explodes and fire rains to the ground. I shoot the sphere another three times. I see more cracks on it. Dear God, it's working.

I look behind and see multiple helicopters aiming at my helicopter. I might be fucked. Then I realize I can use this.

I fly on top of the sphere and wait for the missiles to aim at me. I turn off the flight of the helicopter and let it fall. I jump out as the missiles head for my helicopter. The missiles follow the falling heli and onto the sphere.

As I fall, I look to the sphere. The heli falls on it and so do the missiles and create a massive explosion. The explosion was so strong I was flown away in the air. The people at the bottom are consumed by flame.

I fall and expect a hard landing, and so I close my eyes. Then I feel my hand held by something and my fall stop. I open to see someone on a PolandBall heli holding my hand. I get a better look on who it is.

"Eren!?"

"This is my apology for fucking things up."

"We need to save [Insert GenshinPlace member]!"

"Alright then. Hold your breathe, we're heading into that explosion."

We fly to the battlefield and see [Insert GenshinPlace member]. They notice us and hold out their hand. We launch a missile onto the enemies to make way for our comrade.

"Shit! The explosion! [Insert GenshinPlace member]! Grab my hand!"

I grab them and we all get on the heli. We watch as the explosion becomes larger and larger.

And then it quickly disappears. And with it, the sphere.

"Holy fuck..." Eren said. "Did we just... Win?"

Venti sits on the coach, watching TV and watching the situation at the White House unfold. He doesn't know I'm there.

He witnesses the destruction of the sphere. He also notices the light shaped person. He watches as that light becomes brighter.

He wonders what is happening to it.

Then suddenly.

"Agh! What the!?"

Venti's hand glows and what flows out of it is what felt like energy. It goes through the house and then outside.

Venti follows it outside only to see his energy wasn't the only one in the sky. Where is it going? Venti sees it going to the White House.

I see the millions of energy reach the light shaped person. Each one that connects to it makes it brighter.

"What in the hell is happening!?" I said.

We hear a sound below us, it's one of our enemies.

"You doomed us all! It's happening! The end of the world! The energy of all femboys is going into the damn light! We were trying to stop it! Now it's too late..."

[Insert GenshinPlace member] asks the man. "What do you mean!? What's going to happen!?"

"We tried to stop it before it happens. We spent centuries. This was written in legends... He who rises above all will come to our world, reborn after heartbreak."

The light slowly emits color. Pink, white, blue.

"He has arrived and stronger now with the powers of all femboys. He might as well be considered God. He is the Femboy above all."

As we watch this unfold, the figure becomes more and more familiar to me.

Until...

"No... Wait... HOLD ON!"

I jump off the heli and onto the ground.

"GAMEBANG!?" Eren yelled out.

It cannot be. This cannot be real. It can't be who I think it is.

The light becomes smaller and smaller and lands on the ground. It has the size of a person. The light disappears and is only color.

I climb higher and higher to see the Femboy above all. I finally reach him.

"Hello, Gamebang..."

It cannot be. This is impossible.

It's...

"Astolfo..."
