Chapter 1: Daughter of God.

Alizeh POV

10 years ago.

It was a quiet night, and both my dads, Gamebang and Venti, were asleep. They were apparently sleeping so loud that I keep hearing banging through their room. And I guess both make weird noises when they sleep. I trust what they say!

So here I am, trying to sleep, but I'm too busy trying to capture this little pokemon on my Gameboy. I play pokemon for a few more minutes and get significantly far.

And I am currently battling another trainer to finally get in the league. The dude is so screwed when I bring out my Charizard.

And I do gain the upper hand. My attacks are tremendously overwhelming my opponent.

But suddenly, their Gyarados beats my Charizard, and every other pokemon I had.

I just lost the league.

"AGH!" I yelled out. Throwing the Gameboy to the ground. I lay back in bed, biting my nails, angered at the pixelated teenager that defeated me. I grip my hands tighter and tighter.

And tighter.

Then my hands feel hotter, like they're burning. But I feel no pain. No, this isn't a burning sensation. It's something flowing into my hands. It glows teal.

"Ah!" I get up and try blowing it away, but that made it glow brighter. It was at this point where I couldn't control it, and I unconsciously aimed at my bedroom door.

And off it went, shooting a massive ray of wind that blew away my entire wall.

"What the-" My dads went up to see if I was okay. They looked at me. I noticed the lower parts of my hair were glowing, and so were Venti's.

I don't remember much after that. I just remember everything being fine.

I woke up in the morning and ate breakfast. My dad, Venti, came up to me and sat next to me.

"Alizeh..." He said. "You wanna know the reason why that happened yesterday?"

"Y-Yeah?" I responded.

"I'm the God of wind, and you're my daughter." His braids were glowing. "You're the daughter of a God, Alizeh."

He said that with a saddened look on his face, which I didn't understand.

"That's good, right? The Gods are just and righteous. Shouldn't I be happy about it?"

"Well... There are people who wish harm upon Gods. Upon me. And you're practically almost one. And being a God was... exhausting. I don't want you to live that life, Alizeh."

Venti put a ring in one of my fingers.

"Think of this ring as your armor. And think of your body as a cardboard box with water inside. Cardboard doesn't contain water very well, and so some leak out and make everything around it wet. But by covering the box in... powerful tape. Sorry, I couldn't think of a metaphor, or whatever figure of speech that was. By covering it in tape, the water is contained, even in cardboard."

I looked at the ring.

Venti spoke. "In reality, right now you are in a mortal body, your cardboard box. The water is your celestial body. Break out of your mortal skin, and you'll simply be a glowing body that shoots wind everywhere. This ring is your tape, to ensure that your powers don't come back while wearing them. To ensure... you live a normal life. Understand?"

I nodded. My dad smiled and kissed me on my forehead.

Present day...

Looking over the ocean under the sunset in the middle of an empty road, I start to wonder what I could've done. But I realize that it all won't matter soon.

I wish things were different.

I keep attempting a sexual relationship with my cousin, I almost pushed my best friend Collei to suicide with threatening letters, I wasn't good enough to get into my dream college, and... I tried to... I... She... I killed a girl after she wouldn't... She... And I... I lied to the police about it and made her look like the villain.

Oh how wonderful life could've been if I wasn't this way.

Or... How wonderful the world would be if everything that was wrong with it went away.

I look to my ring finger and see the ring my father put on me at a young age.

I try to take it off, but it is permanently stuck.

I open my car door and place my ring finger between. I take a deep breath, and slam the door, cutting off my finger. Blood spews all over me and I scream in pain. But eventually, I stop yelling.

I look at the dismembered finger and the ring around it. Then I look at my hand, without its ring finger. I no longer feel anything in that area.

Until something comes out of it, a glowing teal new finger that isn't human skin, but my celestial body. It radiates the power of a God.

For the first time, I feel that energy from all those years ago.

Chapter 2: Dark blue nothingness.

Gamebang POV

Me, [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, Michael Jackson, and Morbius stand before a giant submarine. We have a strap around our necks that ensure we get to breathe underwater. In all of our pockets is a device that detects Celestial Meteor, the material used to power a time machine.

In the deep depths of the ocean are remnants of Celestial Meteors, and our target who has stolen our time machine should be aiming for those meteors.

The goal: Track down the meteors and the target. Arrest the target and secure the meteors.

Actually, this mission is different this time. Our boss, Obama, will be joining our team.

"Why are you coming with, sir?" Eren asked Obama.

"Well, I'm an important political figure, and I'll be using that for some extra errands." Obama responded. "Get in the submarine, I'll explain."

We all enter one by one, we strap on our seat belts. Michael powers up the submarine, we feel the whole thing shake and sink slowly. I hold on to my seat.

And then, the sounds of the surface world are no longer heard. Sounds of silence drowns the atmosphere, and we keep sinking deeper.

We have entered the ocean.

"What we have discovered recently is that..." Obama spoke. "Within the perimeters of the located Celestial Meteor was another place PolandBall had been trying to solve. Atlantis."

He brings out a hologram from his phone and gives a 3D model of the kingdom of Atlantis. We are stunned by its beauty. Multiple giant structures, villages that have no ground and simply float, it almost looks like a giant colosseum that contains multiple homes inside, and holding all of it together is one giant pillar in the center of it all, which I assume to be the main castle.

"Atlantis had been causing some issues in the surface world, such as tsunamis and earthquakes." Obama stated. "We don't know the reason why, but I aim to use my status as President-"

"Former President." [Insert GenshinPlace member] interrupted.

AA
AAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH

And then, the submarine shakes for the final time. Strong enough to take the octopus off the window. Phew...

"Hey, GB." Eren asked. "Your... Your pants are wet."

"Um." I had to think of an excuse. "I don't sweat through my head, I sweat through my balls." Perfect excuse.

"Alright, everyone. Welcome to the kingdom of the depths." Obama opened the doors and revealed exactly what we saw in the 3D hologram.

It's beautiful.

There's so many fish people too. They don't have legs, just fins. They're just swimming around.

The structures are alot bigger than what I imagined them to be. I can't see the top end of the giant pillar like castle, it fades in the blue darkness.

"Hey." I asked [Insert GenshinPlace member] "You think we'll be able to see fish sex?"

"Please stop speaking."

"Do you think I should fuck a fish?"

"I thought you were afraid of sea animals."

"Mate, these are half human half fish people. As long as I see tits and dicks, it should be fine!"

[Insert GenshinPlace member] sighs and walks away from me. Damn, guess they don't like fish sex.

"Oh, there's our ride." Obama was approached by a vehicle with what looked to be knights driving. "Me and Michael will be heading off. Locate the Meteor soon, guys. I'll be making an alliance."

They got in the vehicle and headed off to the giant castle in the center.

We watched as they faded away from our vision because of how high their destination must've been. I wouldn't be surprised if they were at the top floor of that thing.

While we're at it, we stare at the gigantic blue beauty that was this city.

But that could be done later.

I pull out the device that detects the Meteor. I turn it on.

According to the device, we have to head deeper. I guess the only legal way to do that here would be to traverse the kingdom to its lower parts.

Well, it was time for a road trip.

Chapter 3: Princess of Atlantis.

Michael Jackson POV

When I heard that I was gonna be coming with Obama to meet with the princess just in case the agreement doesn't go as planned to somehow charm her, I was stunned. I mean, how would I seduce her? I don't think these fish people have ever seen a black man before. Would it be better if I got plastic surgery and made myself look lighter for this to work? Man, I sure hope it doesn't have to come to that.

Anyway, as this vehicle moves up and up to the top of this castle, I look to the window and just see the most beautiful sight I've ever seen. I see the entirety of Atlantis. It's giant walls mesmerize me with their size and sheer girth- wait.

The amount of people swimming to anywhere they want. They know no roads and they are not bound by the ground. They are free.

It's beautiful.

The vehicle parks at the entrance of her majesty's chambers, her balcony. I see Obama deeply sigh and then adjust his tie. I follow in his footsteps and started putting inhumane amounts of mint gum inside my mouth whilst spraying my hair only to realize that won't work because of the water, and so I resort to forcefully doing my hair with small clips. Obama watched me do all of this in under a second, and seemed quite baffled.

"You good, man?" He asked.

"Brbrbbrbrbb" I tried speaking, but I was busy chewing gum. Actually, yeah I can breathe underwater but I can't stop water from getting in my mouth. Ah shit, now chewing this stuff seems gross. Maybe that's why they're more salty than usual.

I stand on the edge of the balcony and proceed to throw up the abnormal amount of gum I was chewing. What came out of my mouth was this large pink sphere that weighed like a dumbbell.

"Eh." I throw it down to the city, but I didn't realize that since it weighed a ton it would fall like a regular heavy object despite being under water. "Uh-oh."

"Michael!" Obama was furious. "What the hell is wrong with you!"

"Relax, it's not like it's going to hit someone's head down there. I mean, we're so high up that it may take hours for that thing to land, so they'll have time to spot it and stop it!"

"Yeah I know that, Michael. But you, a foreign guest, just littered in an ancient city that's currently attacking us."

"Well..."

"You have no excuse."

"But sir, I-"

"Just don't do anything like that again without my permission."

"Yes sir..."

Man.

The doors to the princess' bedroom opens, and there she is.

"So... I take that you are the representatives of the surface world?" She asked. The princess was sitting on a chair, twirling with her own long blue hair.

I couldn't fuckin believe it. It was Aqua. The chick from the Konusuba anime. The one they keep calling useless.

"Hey! I'm not useless!"

Huh?

"Yeah, I can hear you, monkey."

Did she just call me...

"What? Not understanding me? Let me speak in a language you'll understand."

Don't.

"Oo-oo ah-ah."

"Michael, what did you do." Obama asked.

"I didn't do shit! She can hear my thoughts!"

"Damn right I do." She stood up and walked to us. "I'm not the same girl anymore from the konusuba days! Ever since the Light Novel ended and I was out of a job, I decided to rule the city of Atlantis! Guess what the other characters are doing!"

"I presume they're all on the surface." I responded.

"They're dead."

"WHAT."

"Yeah, they actually agreed to live with me here, but I kinda forgot that humans can't breathe underwater. So they drowned."

"But... They were your friends, Aqua! Don't you feel horrible!" I said.

"Oh shut it, humans die all the time." She said as her eye twitched like what she said wasn't true. I then looked at the pictures next to her bed, which was a photograph of her and the other characters. Kazuma, Megumin, Darkness. Actually, it wasn't one photograph, it was an entire shrine dedicated to them.

"Enough with this." Obama took over. "We're here to discuss the peace treaty and potential alliance between the surface world and the underwater world."

"Ah, of course." Aqua pointed at the table for us to seat in. We sat down and brought out our agreement papers, which immediately broke into pieces because we're underwater. I look at Obama, who's eyes were almost looking like they'd pop right out. I knew Obama had been working on those papers since last week, every night with no sleep.

"What was that?" Aqua asked.

"Uh... Nothing. Don't worry about it." Obama responded. "So, our conditions are: Both sides agree to a truce and end this senseless fighting. That's for the attacks. For the alliance, we share and trade materials and technology that the other side can't access in their own world to help the entirety of both worlds to move further technologically. An alliance also ensures that both will not hesitate to help the other in times of crisis. TLDR; Let's stop fighting and start working together."

Aqua began to think, and she looked lost in thought.

"Yeah, I'm not taking this deal." Aqua said.

"W-What?" Obama was baffled.

"I think you surface people deserve these attacks."

"WHA- YOU SHOT DOWN THE STATUE OF LIBERTY ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF 9/11!"

"Skill issue, keep your statues safe. Plus, I don't like losing fights or ending it in a truce. I wanna win."

"Jesus, what did we ever do to you ocean people?"

"Oh? You ask? What about all the trash you put in the ocean? It smells like shit, you know."

"Where else are we supposed to put it."

"IN YOUR DUMPSTER."

"What the hell is a dumpster."

"And not to mention! The dead bodies you all dump down here because yall are too lazy to dig a hole."

"Hey! Murdering someone is already hard work."

"You surface people disgust me. Always walking and shit."

"At least we get sunlight."

"You say that's a good thing, but look at your skin."

"What's wrong with my skin?"

"YOU'RE BLACK! YOU'RE BURNT!"

"Aqua, that's not how science works. You ocean people are the ones that don't get sunlight. Touch some fucking grass instead of being fucking fish."

"SHUT THE FUCK UP, MONKEY. OO-OO AH-AH."

"SHUT THE FUCK UP, USELESS COW. MOO, MOO."

"OO-OO AH-AH"

"MOO MOO."

"GUYS STOP!" I yelled out and slammed the table. "Can't we all just stop being racist for one second?"

"Ugh, you ocean people are all the same." Obama said.

"Well, I think the same on you surface people." Aqua responded.

It was times like this where I had to step in. To stop racism.

"Guys, guys, guys! What's actually the difference between you two?" I asked.

"He's a monkey and I'm a Goddess." Aqua answered.

"You're not even a Goddess anymore. They found you so fucking annoying that you got fired." Obama said.

"STOP IT!" I yelled again. I sighed. "What's the difference between an ocean person and a surface person?"

Obama answered. "One gets sunlight while the other fills the ocean with their own piss."

"No, that's wrong." I told Obama.

Aqua spoke. "Oh! One has the freedom to float anywhere while the other is stuck in their chair playing fuckin Genshin Impact."

"Wrong again." I said. "The difference between both is...nothing!"

Both were silent for a moment.

"Okay, scientifically there are major differences." Obama said.

"Plus, lifestyles clearly. We have alot of differences." Aqua pointed out.

"But... We all live in the same Earth. We are all human." I stated.

"Michael, what are you saying." Obama asked.

I smirked.

"It don't matter if you're black or white."

I started dancing along to the beat of the song.

"Where's that music coming from?" Aqua asked. "How is he dancing under water?"

"I think the more important question is how is this musical scene going to adapt to words only." Obama said.

"Just imagine the song and read along the lyrics." I said.

I swam to both and moved their chairs next to each other. I went behind them.

"I took my baby on a Saturday bang

Boy is that girl with you?

Yes we're one and the same."

"What do these lyrics have to do with what we've been doing." Obama said.

I jump on the table and start dancing.

"Now I believe in miracles

And a miracle has happened tonight"

"I don't know. I don't think it's miracle that we can't agree with one another." Aqua stated.

I grabbed both and hugged both with each of my arms at the same time.

"But, if you're thinkin' about my baby
It don't matter if you're black or white!"

I started dragging them out of the castle to swim around the city in sync with the rhythm.
We begin to move back and forth between New York and Atlantis.

"Okay how the fuck are we switching locations so fast." Aqua said.

I introduce them to random people who dance along with me and agree with what I said.

"They print my message in the Saturday Sun

I had to tell them I ain't second to none

And I told about equality and it's true

Either you're wrong or you're right

But, if you're thinkin' about my baby

It don't matter if you're black or white!"

Me and a couple random citizens start dancing as Aqua and Obama stare in confusion.

"I am tired of this devil

I am tired of this stuff

I am tired of this business

Sew when the going gets rough

I ain't scared of your brother

I ain't scared of no sheets

I ain't scared of nobody

Girl, when the going gets mean."

Suddenly, another person comes out of nowhere and starts singing.

Obama was confused. "Where did he come from-"

"Protection

For gangs, clubs, and nations
Causing grief in human relations
It's a turf war on a global scale
I'd rather hear both sides of the tale
See, it's not about races
Just places, faces
Where your blood comes from
Is where your space is
I've seen the bright get duller
I'm not going to spend my life being a color."

I continue to dance and become the main focus once again as a group of both ocean and surface people dance along with me.

"Don't tell me you agree with me
When I saw you kicking dirt in my eye
But, if you're thinkin' about my baby
It don't matter if you're black or white
I said if you're thinkin' of being my baby
It don't matter if you're black or white
I said if you're thinkin' of being my brother
It don't matter if you're black or white."

We, in sync with the music, travel all the way back to Aqua's chambers in frightening speed before the song ends.

"Ooh, ooh
Yea, yea, yea now
Ooh, ooh
Yea, yea, yea now
It's black, it's white
It's tough for you to get by (yeah, yeah, yeah)

It's black, it's white

It's black, it's white

It's tough for you to get by (yeah, yeah, yeah)

It's black, it's white!"

We land back on the table, where we started. And the song ends.

"...What happened?" Obama asked.

"I don't know." Aqua said.

"Just don't be racist." I told them.

And suddenly their eyes lit up.

"I... I never thought about that!" Aqua discovered something new.

"Me neither... But now! I think I can...respect everyone in spite of what they are!" Obama stated.

Obama and Aqua speak to one another.

"Aqua... I'm sorry for calling you a useless bitchless fish fucking cow. And I'm sorry for calling your people discord mods who get no sunlight who surround themselves with piss."

"And I'm sorry, Obama, for calling your people https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/List\_of\_ethnic\_slurs and stuff..."

"I'm glad both of you made up." I said. "Now...about that alliance and peace treaty."

"Ah yes!" Aqua began to speak. "I'll accept the terms and conditions. As long as you all stop polluting our oceans, and we'll stop sending tsunamis over you."

"Deal." Obama brought his hand out for an official handshake.

"Wait..." Aqua said. "One more thing you gotta do before we shake hands."

"What's that?" I asked.

Aqua brought out her phone and showed us a PowerPoint.

"Over the last few weeks, a terrorist by the name of 'Com Insydemi' has been infiltrating Atlantis and kidnapping some of our most valuable political figures. Without those people, some areas of Atlantis run rampant with crime. As representatives, I want the surface world to help us catch this criminal to prove that they will help us as we will help them."

Obama nodded. "You have my word. Me and Michael will start looking for Com Insydeme."

"Huh? Why don't you two call some soldiers down here to help? You're the representatives of the surface world, you can't find a terrorist."

"Oh Aqua..." Obama smirked. "What kind of king doesn't find his own battles?"

Me and Obama left the palace and began our search.

Chapter 4: Fish, Octopus, vomit, drugs.

Gamebang POV

I think I'm horny.

Suddenly, I felt the need to commit bestiality again. It's almost as if these feelings I'm currently having are the same ones from all those years ago, when I sucked that dog's dick.

Well, I'm different from that person now. I'm divorced, which means I should be the top this time.

I don't know why I get this feeling at seemingly random times.

"Guys...?" I said as I was breathing heavily.

"We're all separating." Eren said as he was staring at an octopus.

"Y-Yes! We can cover more ground." [Insert GenshinPlace member] stated while holding their own stomach, as if they were in pain.

"Alright gang, split up." Morbius said as he immediately headed to the nearest massage shop. Everyone followed suite and went away, leaving me behind, dumbfounded.

Huh...

I guess I'll uh... Find something.

I swam through the low parts of the city, looking for something to fuck. People? No, I wanted animal. Octopus? No, I don't like tentacles. Shark? Bad idea. Whale? My thing is too small to fit in the blowhole. Fish? Maybe.

Actually yeah, I'll just fuck a fish.

There weren't any fish that interested me around here, so I looked for a long time.

But then, there it was. A goldfish.

If you're wondering, yes the goldfish was of legal age.

Anyway.

This goldfish was sitting inside a fish tank, swimming about. I don't know why it's in a tank when we're underwater, but whatever.

From what I can tell, it was a pet. Likely a kid's since it was inside a particularly teenage boy looking bedroom.

Nevertheless, I broke the windows and jumped right into the house.

"Hey, little guy..." I said to the fish as it swam without worry. Not for long, it's gonna have to worry about how to handle this cock in its mouth.

I put my hand inside the tank and grabbed the fish. It wouldn't die if it was outside its tank, we're literally underwater.

I let go of it and let it swim around while I took off my pants. Now that my longsword was unsheathed, I took the fish again and opened its mouth with my fingers, using the rest of my hand to let it stay open.

I quickly insert my cock inside its mouth, and I start maneuvering up and down. It feels nice. The spiky parts of the inside, the walls are soft as salmon, it's teeth bring me the pain I wanted to feel and it feels like a second circumcision.

I start going faster and faster.

I began thinking of some Nemo and Dory hentai I saw on reddit.

But then, I feel my dick covered in something other than the fish. No, it was inside the fish. I look to its mouth and the fish had seemingly thrown up from having my dick in it. It's brown vomit floats around me.

I start to get mad. How dare this little shit throw up on MY dick!? It should be thankful! This little shit will PAY.

The entire time I was having fun, I couldn't get the goldfish to nibble on my whole penis since it was so small. Anything further, I would have penetrated my thing to impale it all the way till it came out the fish's back, killing it. So I had to be safe.

But this bitch disrespected me, so I pushed my cock farther and I saw it come out the other side of the fish. It was like my dick was wearing a fish as a watch. Blood spewed everywhere and covered the waters.

I just stood there, calming myself down. Suddenly, I cummed. I guess the body can't really control itself sometimes. I watch as my seed floats around.

And then, the door to the room opened.

"Oh..." I said. "Hey... Little boy. Um..."

The kid screamed and ran for his mother.

"WAIT! KID NO!"

The mom came to me with a phone on her ear.

"Don't take one step closer!" She said as she looked at my dick, which clearly had the boy's dead goldfish around it, along with the blood and sperm floating around me. "I'M CALLING THE POLICE!"

"WAIT!" I begged. "MA'AM, WAIT!"

At this point, I knew there wasn't anything I could do. So I jumped out the window and ran off, hoping to outrun the police.

It was hard running while having this dead fish's teeth on my dick, but I don't have time to clean myself up.

"POLICE! LET ME SEE YOUR HANDS!" Oh fuck they're coming. I look behind me, oh shit they're swimming to me. They're so much faster than me.

Suddenly, I was tackled to the ground. I looked as three buff oily fish men were handling me like how I wanted to be handled. I kept 'resisting' instead.

Bam! The cell doors close. Here I was once again, in prison. Not again...

"Gamebang?" A familiar voice called to me. I look behind me and see the whole gang was also here. [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, and Morbius.

"Damn, you too huh." Eren said. "What're you in for."

"Fucking a goldfish and then killing it." I answered.

"Sounds like you." Eren told me.

"Why are you guys here too?" I asked.

Everyone looked ashamed. Eren spoke again.

"Well..."

Eren POV

2 hours ago.

"Guys...? Gamebang said as he was breathing heavily.

"We're all seperating." I said as I stared at the sexy octopus.

"Y-Yes! We can cover more ground." [Insert GenshinPlace member] stated while holding their stomach, as if they were in pain.

"Alright gang, split up." Morbius said as he immediately headed to the nearest massage shop. Everyone including me followed suite and went away, leaving Gamebang dumbfounded.

Now, I had never seen such a more beautiful sea animal than this octopus. Everything about them shines the definition of hot as fuck. The tentacles were long and girthy, and their skin was smooth as glass. They saw me swimming towards them, and they winked at me. Let's fucking GOOOOOOOOO!!!!

"Hey, human baby..." The octopus said as one of their tentacles were gesturing me to come closer. WOOF WOOF WOOF!!!!

I arrived to them and another tentacle gestured me to kneel, I happily oblige. Two tentacles arrive to my pants and slowly start to take it off.

I suddenly become worried. "You sure? We're in public, sexy octopus lady."

"Oh shush, honey." The octopus responded. "Just enjoy the ride..."

NOW, I was rock hard.

Their tentacles lock on my penis and others hold my arms and legs, lifting me up like Simba. Here I was, in the air held by an octopus, getting my dick slowly rubbed by two tentacles. I was living the dream.

The octopus moved closer to me. Their tentacles unlock away from my cock. They flip themselves sideways to reveal their hole, and it slowly accepts my sword as they moan uncontrollably. This is heaven. Then, one of their tentacles made their way inside my mouth, and it tastes like sushi. I keep sucking and sucking as the octopus keeps riding and riding.

Our activity goes faster and faster and more intense. Our heart rate would be beeping the hell out if we had something to show it. I feel it, I feel my load. And judging from the constant shaking of their tentacles, they're close too. We go faster and faster, higher and higher, moan louder and louder and BOOM! I cum inside them.

Their tentacle exits me and I exit from their inside. We lay on the floor as others watch in public, which I didn't care at this point.

"That was amazing..." I said.

"Yeah..." The octopus was satisfied. "Best way to start my birthday..."

"Well, happy birthday to you, beautiful."

"Thanks! I'm turning 15 today."

"WHAT THE FUCK."

I run the fuck away, naked. I see the police coming for my ass. How the fuck was I supposed to know they were a minor!? ALL OCTOPUSES LOOK THE SAME.

OH FUCK, THE POLICE ARE GETTING CLOSER. I WAS SO TIRED FROM THE SEX THAT MY STAMINA DECREASES.

OH GOD, THEY TACKLED ME. THEY GOT ME IN HANDCUFFS.

"It's people like you that make this world a terrible place!" The officer said to me.

I'm going to jail, oh god no.

[Insert GenshinPlace member] POV

2 hours ago.

"Guys...? Gamebang said as he was breathing heavily.

"We're all seperating." Eren said as he was staring at an octopus.

"Y-Yes! We can cover more ground! I stated while holding my stomach, trying to not to throw up.

"Alright gang, split up." Morbius said as he immediately headed to the nearest massage shop. Everyone including me followed suite and went away, leaving Gamebang dumbfounded.

I immediately went to find the nearest trash can. We're underwater, so my puke would literally go everywhere instead of down, and I don't want that to happen.

I knew I shouldn't have gotten into water when I just ate less than 30 minutes ago. These stomach cramps are fucking me up real bad. But I just couldn't stop the urge to eat some taco bell.

Oh god, why didn't I wait until I digested it all.

I struggle to find any trash cans in the area. I feel the food climbing my chest.

Oh! A restaurant! A place like that must have trash cans! Yes!

I enter the restaurant and immediately head to the bathrooms.

Now here's the problem.

Do I enter the girls or boys bathroom? Considering I'm a self Insert character for the reader who's gender is always ambiguous, I don't know what to do.

Oh fuck, I can't take it anymore. Fuck it, boys bathroom.

I enter and then I hear in one of the stalls two guys having the time of their life, not caring that their seed is floating everywhere in the room.

This sight makes me gag and I struggle to stop the food from climbing faster and faster.

Fuck, girls bathroom.

Oh for fucks sake! It's the same thing! Two girls are in one of the stalls and their stuff is floating everywhere!

Oh fuck it, at least it's not sperm. I run into the girls bathroom and stand before a sink. To keep liquids from floating everywhere, it has a tube that sucks everything close to the sink, almost imitating gravity.

Perfect!

I lean in closer to that tube and feel it's air vacuuming every unclean liquid around me, which includes the girls' stuff. It's disgusting, but we're underwater so I'll be clean in no time.

"BBRBRBRAUAHAYAUUSHSH" I vomit into the sink violently. Some of my undigested food doesn't land on the tube and floats away, somehow getting inside the stall where two girls are fucking. What.

The girls scream and run out naked. They see me, who just threw up.

"WHAT'S A MAN DOING IN THE GIRLS ROOM!?" One of them shouted.

"I-Uh, don't have a gend-"

"HELP! HELP!"

"GIRLS, GIRLS, LET'S JUST CALM-"

"What's the problem here?" A police officer arrived at the scene.

Here's what he should be seeing.

A person that two naked girls are calling a male and a molester, who has puke all over the place along with vaginal liquid, which indicates something was done.

"Haha..." I was nervous. "FUCK."

Anyway, I started to run the fuck out of there, but it was too late. I was tackled and in handcuffs.

"Damn sex offenders these days." One of the cops said.

FUCK, THEY THINK IM A SEX OFFENDER. I'M FUCKEDDDDD.

Morbius POV

2 hours ago.

"Guys...? Gamebang said as he was breathing heavily.

"We're all seperating." Eren said as he was staring at an octopus.

"Y-Yes! We can cover more ground! [Insert GenshinPlace member] stated while holding their stomach, as if they were in pain.

"Alright gang, split up." I said as I immediately headed to the nearest massage shop. Everyone followed suite and went away, leaving Gamebang dumbfounded.

I desperately need some relaxation.

The morbius meme isn't funny anymore. It's just annoying unless it's some other more relevant and better written piece of media.

I've got a shit movie, a dead meme no one finds funny, and Jared Leto in general is controversial. I've been drinking this pain away, but maybe a massage will do me better.

I arrive at the doors of the massage shop. I look at what they're offering. I decide to pick the back massage, facial care, some fire cupping that includes some acupuncture, and a hand job.

I talk to the registrar and I'm headed off to the relaxation rooms.

Minutes later, I'm laying down getting my back massaged before the cupping. Ahh, this feels amazing. I haven't felt this good since I got my golden globe award. I could almost fall asleep right here right now.

Massage over, time for some fire cupping.

Fire is placed briefly inside the cups before they go onto my skin. Some parts of my back have acupuncture needles placed on, which would be covered by the cup. For some that don't have a needle, they are being moved across my back. I'll admit, it's not the most comfortable feeling, but I'm feeling less sore.

Fire cupping therapy done, I stand up and look at the mirror and view my back, which looks like a pepperoni pizza. But I feel pretty well right now.

Now time for the facial therapy. To remove some grease from my face, they use cupping but smaller cups. They do it multiple times over my cheeks and my forehead. I'm told I'll look younger by the time this is done.

I'll admit, it feels weird at first, but a few more times and you'll get really comfortable. This is nice.

And that's that, facial therapy done.

Time for the hand job.

A really hot girl comes out and takes off my pants. Oh hell yeah baby.

And so I-

"Excuse me." A police officer came by. "We've been looking for you."

I saw them pointing at me. What? What did I do? I just wanted a massage.

"Have you been taking drugs?" The police officer said.

"I mean, my actor played a drug addict, but that was 20 years ago. I have not, sir."

Suddenly, my vision starts to wobble. I look at the person who massaged me and see them holding a syringe. Holy fuck, they drugged me.

Maybe it'll end like Requiem for a Dream again.

NO! That was 20 years ago. I'm no longer the stupid character who put heroin on a wound that resulted in my arm getting amputated. I'm motherfuckin Morbius.

"NEVER AGAIN." I yelled out before running the fuck away.

Yeah, I got arrested immediately. I don't know how to swim.

Gamebang POV

Present time.

"And yeah, that's what happened to all of us." Eren said.

I began to speak and make sense of all that happened. "So I've been arrested for bestiality. Eren was arrested for pedophilia. [Insert GenshinPlace member] is a sex offender. And Morbius did drugs allegedly 20 years ago."

The cold darkness of the prison surrounds us. The alarm rings and indicates that it is bedtime.

"We gotta get out of here if we want to find the time machine." Eren said.

"Then we'll find a way." I said. "We'll break out of prison."

Chapter 5: The hunt.

Obama POV

After some investigation, me and Michael had found the location of Com Insydeme, an Atlantic Terrorist that has kidnapped some of Atlantis' most valuable political figures.

Through tracing back previous incidents of each kidnapping event, we found the likelihood that Com was outside of Atlantis, but also near it.

Miles away from the kingdom of Atlantis, in the deep blue land was a relic from the surface world. An example of our failure to conquer the deep.

The titanic.

By now, as we moved farther away from Atlantis, we starting seeing less in the deep blue. The lights of the kingdom that showed the color blue slowly faded away and we were left with nothing but black darkness.

Atlantis is built upon ground, of course. It isn't just floating around. It's built on a mountain under the ocean. A megastructure who's size we cannot comprehend when underwater, because we simply cannot see enough. It'd be a different story if this were on the surface. If we can see the entirety of Everest, we can see this one. But we can't.

Slowly, we had to jump off this mountain. We were no longer walking in the void, but we were floating.

With no sense of direction, we needed a device, compass. Which we did. All we had to do was make sure the arrow was forward. It would also tell us if there's any nearby objects that we might encounter.

This was the closest thing we got to seeing beyond this dark void, besides getting close to whatever is in front of us and shining it with our light. God bless us if we encounter something we shouldn't get close to.

We kept moving forward and our compass beeped to tell us there was something near. It's dark and our lights don't reach far. We don't know what it is. The best we can do is go around it.

But it's moving.

We could go to it and see what it is, but I really don't want to. I just... I'm afraid.

But before long, it went away on its own.

A thought appeared that terrified me. It is likely that it was a creature that lived down here for all its life, knowing and adapting.

Us, our bodies couldn't perceive and see what it was. We are not them. We can't see them.

But maybe, just maybe, they saw us. They're the ones who live and thrive here. They're the ones who can see the ocean the way we see land. They might see far beyond what our body comprehends, and maybe see the mountain Atlantis sits upon as we see Everest.

Michael is swimming with me, but I don't know how he feels or what face he's making. Sometimes, we swim too far from each other. It doesn't take much distance for us to fade into darkness, and for a moment... I am alone.

Obviously, we run back to each other immediately, but it doesn't take much effort to simply float by yourself in this vast black emptiness.

I don't know how Michael feels, but I hope he's taking this better than I am.

And then, our compass tells us that something is in front of us. Something large and that it is very near us. We shine our light on it as we get closer and there it is. The titanic.

It's all... rotting and brown. Mold larger than both of us. And of course, we can't see it's full size. All we see is the front. A partial reckoning.

We head closer. For the first time in decades, someone has set afoot on the titanic.

Our compass has no need here. We can actually use our sight. But it is very limited, the darkness restricts the distance we see.

We walk for a while, searching for our target. We walk the entire floor until we realize that they're deeper inside. Me and Michael breathe before heading downstairs.

Again, the 2nd floor doesn't have who we're looking for. We head deeper.

Now, to the floor where everyone's rooms were located. We had to check every individual room.

There were beds and closets and broken pieces of carpet. Broken windows. At times, we'd find skeletal remains.

In one room, there were two skeletons hugging each other.

In another, there was only a single bone that was grabbing on to a handle. We couldn't find the rest of its body.

Again, this floor had nothing but death. We head to the last floor.

In the corner of one room, we found him. Com Insydeme and the various politicians he had tied up.

"Hands up, Com." Michael said as he pointed a gun. "You're under arrest."

"Michael...?" Com said.

...?

"Hold on... I recognize him." Michael stated. "This guy... This is a musician. I did a record label with him once."

"What?" I responded.

"Com... What happened?" Michael asked.

"I'll tell you anything..." Com answered. "Just get me out of here..."

It seemed Com was just as afraid as I was of the darkness.

Michael carried Com and I gathered the hostages.

We made that treacherous swim back to Atlantis. Encountering every dark void again. This time, to get back to the mountain, we had to swim up.

The ocean has this...pressure. Deep enough underwater, you don't feel anything until you try to swim back up and it just feels like something heavy is preventing you from doing so.

Like dumbbells are attached to you and the only option is to go deeper.

Thankfully, we weren't deep enough for that pressure to be strong, but we felt it.

But we made it back to Atlantis anyway. The darkness gradually became blue, and we saw light again in the bustling city.

Thank God.

...

"Your majesty." I said to Aqua. "I present to you, the terrorist known as Com Insydeme."

"Mhm." She said. She slowly went up to Com. I expected her to give him a barrating for making her people hostages.

But then...

"OH MY GODDD!!!" Aqua shouted happily. "COM, I'M SUCH A HUGE FAN OMG."

... What?

"I told you." Michael said to me. "Com is a musician."

"OH MY RBBRBRBEBEB" Aqua was chaotically hugging Com. He himself was also confused. "CAN I GET AN AUTOGRAPH?"

"AQUA, WHAT THE FUCK." I said. "THAT'S SOMEONE YOU CALLED A TERRORIST."

"OH MY GOD, LEAVE ME ALONE YOU MONKEY. THIS IS MY IDOL."

Yeah... We may have a problem here.

But suddenly...

"Your highness! There is something you need to see." A knight came by.

"What is it omg you're interrupting me and Com."

"Four prisoners have escaped Marine Prison!"

"So what? Let the police handle them."

"Your highness... One of the escapees is your ex. Gamebang."

"... Send the entire fucking military to them."

...

I'm sorry, Gamebang and the others went to prison?

Chapter 6: Escape.

Eren POV

Hours prior.

It was the next morning. The alarm rings loudly, disrupting our blissful sleep. Everyone comes out of their cell to head for breakfast.

Me, Gamebang, [Insert GenshinPlace member], and Morbius grab our oysters, which is actually pretty good for a prison. I guess that's what happens when you go to prison in the ocean.

"Alright gang, what do we do." I asked the whole group as we munched on our oysters.

"We gotta get out fast and effectively. The target might reach the Celestial Meteor before us." Gamebang said. "Last time I escaped prison, I went through some secret passageway. Let's find some paths that ensure freedom."

"Then we better start looking." [Insert GenshinPlace member] said. "We don't have time. We gotta reach that Meteor."

Everyone finished their meal and headed off to find escape routes.

The alarm rang and it was time for casual activities. In this case, I went to the gym to see if there was anything I could use.

Maybe these dumbbells could work as weapons.

But then I saw Morbius also enter the gym. I guess we're both looking for weapons.

"That might work." Morbius said as he pointed at a vent.

"Maybe. But we need to know where it leads and if cameras are watching." I responded.

We kept searching and acting like we were working out alongside the other prisoners.

"Hey..." Morbius said. "You ever get that feeling of...loneliness?"

I was weirded out on why he was asking this. "I mean... sometimes."

"You know, it's hard being a dead meme." He said as he let go of a dumbbell.

"What do you mean?"

"Well, I don't know. I have this fear that I'm never going to leave anything meaningful behind once I die. Not children, or anything. I'll be a memory no one remembers."

"That's not true."

"Is it? You forget that PolandBall could easily replace us. We're special soldiers, Eren, but there's always bigger fish. To the government, we're just one of many."

"What are you saying?"

"I don't know. I thought that my movie would be my legacy. And then it was shit, but the meme started and I stayed more relevant than I was supposed to. But memes die, and everyone has already forgotten about me."

"So, you don't want to be forgotten."

"You know, they say you never truly die until someone stops saying your name. So... I want people to say my name long after I'm gone. Any way, just please remember me."

"I understand, Morbius."

"You know, this mission has instilled the fear of death in me. We're deep underwater and we need machinery to get out. What if that machine breaks? And we're only heading deeper to find some space Meteor, and we don't know what it does. If I die here, I will have left behind nothing. No one will remember me."

"Morbius, I will remember you."

Morbius looked at me for a moment and just smiled. "Thanks... I guess that means something."

"You sometimes forget that you have made an impact on the people around you. You don't need some big movie to be remembered. You just need to be a friend."

I could see Morbius struggle to hold his tears. "Um... Yeah, let's look somewhere else." He said before going away.

Gamebang POV

I remember what I did last time when I was in prison. I got fucked by seven buff oily men in the shower for dropping the soap.

Yeah, let's do that again!

Thankfully, [Insert GenshinPlace member] can't enter the men's room, well, neither can they enter the woman's room. So I should be able to do whatever I want without them saying something like 'Gamebang no stop being horny.'

Since this is an underwater prison, I should be fucked while floating in water. I cannot wait to experience this new feeling.

I enter the men's room and spot five buff oily men. Bingo.

I take the soap and close my eyes as I let go of it to drop it.

...

Huh? Why aren't I being fucked?

I open my eyes to see the soap floating. Fuck, I'm in water.

Why isn't this shit heavy enough? Come on you fucking Safe Guard brand soap, DROP.

But despite my efforts, it just floats wherever it wants. I begin to feel the tears building up, but I can't really tell if I'm already crying since, again, I'm in water.

I become more and more frustrated and furiously throw the soap against one of the walls. My throw was pretty strong actually, as it broke into several pieces on impact. I had to cover my eyes since I didn't want soap in it. I can't see anything, but I hear a lot of weird noises from the other prisoners. Could it be that me breaking soap made them mad against me and now feel the urge to fuck me?

I open my eyes, the five buff oily men standing before my little body, along with every person in the room staring at me. Is this it? Oh my god yes yes yes fuck me unti-

"Thank you, kind man..." One of the men said. "It is so hard to clean yourself in these showers... The soap you exposed to everyone cleaned everyone faster than we imagined! We are truly grateful..."

"Yeah!" Another one of the men said. "You know, we were thinking of unknowingly fucking someone today, but we can't help but be grateful to your kindness that we no longer feel horny! Maybe forever!"

...

WHAT.

ARE YOU FUCKING KIDDING ME?

HOW DOES THIS MAKE SENSE- WHAT.

"If you do not mind, kind man... What is your name..." Another one asked.

"Gamebang..." I said, disappointed.

"Let's give it up for Gamebang!" They said. Everyone started cheering me on. I hate my fucking life.

"You are too good to remain in prison, Gamebang." The leader of the buff oily men said. "You deserve to be out there! Not helping criminals like us! That's why we will help you escape this prison. What do you say?" He gave his hand out, expecting me to shake it back.

Escape prison huh... Yeah I guess that can do...

Wait a minute.

"I'm not the only one who needs helping!" I said to everyone. "My friends also need to be out of here. But I think that ALL OF YOU should come with me!"

Everyone started questioning themselves after I said that.

"What does he mean?" "Should we go?" "I wanna fuck someone's earlobe so bad." "Maybe Gamebang's right..."

"Listen." I floated up to maintain a dominant presence. "Somewhere deep in the ocean is a person that aims to harm the world through the means of time. Me and my friends will be heading deeper into the sea to find them! But maybe we don't have to go alone. Maybe the only way to defeat this threat is through an army! I could use men who will watch from above for any danger, and some to come with me to venture deeper into places never seen before. The fate of the entire world depends on you now! I ask of all of you now, for the sake of our families! I have a daughter whom I love more than anything, and she is all I want to protect. Please!"

As I finished my speech, everyone looked in silence. I was afraid that they wouldn't take me up on my offer.

Until...

Everyone starting screaming in agreement. They started chanting my name and they grabbed me and lifted me up as if they were Jesus and I was the cross. Hey! This isn't that bad!

"Let us leave this prison and save the world!" I shouted.

Everyone started following wherever I pointed. Hahaha, this is incredible. I don't even need them to join us on the mission, I just wanted this.

...

"Maybe the vent is the only way..." Morbius said.

"Yeah..." Eren took a dumbbell and held it as some weapon.

"Hey guys, have you seen Gamebang?" [Insert GenshinPlace member] entered the room.

"No?" Eren responded.

"Wait, whats that noise?" Morbius said. A loud rumbling approached the gym until...

BAM! The walls were destroyed and what they saw was ME. Standing alongside my own army.

I looked at them with a sly grin. They were baffled at what was happening.

"Let's get out of here..."

My army of criminals fought against the guards that ruled this prison. We kept moving forward until we reached the front gate. Even though it shouldn't be possible since we're underwater, we left the whole building burning.

The authorities were probably gonna be on our ass now, so we better run fast.

"Eren, where are we going." I asked.

"Take a left from here and we should be at the entrance of the Challenger Deep."

"Then that's where we're going."

My army carried us across the whole kingdom of Atlantis, searching for the entrance.

I took a look at my device that tracked the time machine. Eren was right, it was entering the Challenger Deep. We had to head there fast.

Without a care in the world, our army ran through towns, destroying everything near us. But we had a way more important mission.

But just as we were about to cross the border of Atlantis...

"STOP THIS INSTANT!" Knights with tons of military equipment arrived in front of us. Oh shiiiiittt.

They quickly surrounded us, and we were outnumbered.

"Oh Gamebang..." A familiar voice said. "You always ruin everything for me."

I look to who it was.

"Aqua?"

"That's right, bitch. Long time no see since you cheated on me for that green femboy."

"Oh... Um... How's Kazuma and the others?"

"They're dead."

"Oh god damn it... No hard feelings right?"

"You're getting the death penalty."

OH SHIT.

Our army was being attacked and arrested one by one. I witness my five buff oily men being dragged away.

"Lord Gamebang!" One of them said. "No matter what! We will come back for you!"

Eren, Morbius, and [Insert GenshinPlace member] were all knocked out.

Aqua came to me personally. I was afraid of what she was going to do.

She kicked me in the balls and I passed out.

Chapter 7: An act of war.

Obama POV

Okay, I genuinely did not think GB and the others would fuck up this bad.

Now Aqua is accusing us of sabotaging Atlantis. Now, I am sure as hell we didn't, but holy fuck this evidence is kicking me in the ass.

"So..." Aqua presented a PowerPoint. "You come to my nation and call me a useless cow and foreigners aka your own people to my cities and they commit bestiality, pedophilia, drug use, and sexual misconduct. These four of yours would proceed to start a prison riot that let a shit ton of prisoners escape and wreak havoc among towns in an attempt to get past my borders. All of this happened under my nose, without me knowing, since I was too distracted by our politics. And Michael here is apparently a friend of Com's, someone I am a very big fan of. How should I not assume you made Com kidnap my people and let me become distracted with him in order for your soldiers to let criminals free past the border and maybe even the surface world? If such allegations are true, then I'm afraid this is an act that contradicts an alliance."

I pleaded to her. "Aqua, it's all a coincidence. Me and Michael were genuinely trying to make an alliance! Plus, you called Com a terrorist and look how you treated him."

"He's different."

"Bitch, he's just famous."

"Did you call me a bitch?"

"Okay, I'm sorry. I-"

"If these allegations aren't what's really happening, then what are these four doing here?" She presented Gamebang, [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, and Morbius. All of them tied up.

"You see, Aqua..." Oh god, what was I about to explain. "In the deepest part of the entire ocean is something called a Celestial Meteor, which can be used to fuel up a time machine our organization made, which was stolen by an unknown target who is heading for that Meteor as we speak. GB and the others here are trying to stop this thief from reaching the Meteor and retrieve the time machine."

"Time travel, huh. Seriously?"

"It's true!"

"Okay, even if I believed that, what was the purpose of these four doing the crimes they were imprisoned for?"

"Um..." I looked to the four. Yeah, WHAT THE HELL WERE THEY DOING!? "It's probably all a mistake... But we can put all of this behind us, right? Just let these four go off on their own to the Challenger Deep and let's make an alliance to stop our attacking!"

Aqua didn't look pleased. "You expect me to make an alliance after this assault on my city?"

"Aqua, I'm begging you. We can't keep fighting and let more people die for nothing."

"How am I supposed to trust you all?"

"We'll do anything!"

"Yeah, you helped me with the Com situation. You earned my trust there, but now the possibility of that being a distraction for me. What makes this plead not another distraction?"

"Please... Believe me, Aqua."

"Also, why is Gamebang included here?"

"Hey..." Gamebang said. "It's all coincidence, believe Obama?"

I had to ask her. "You two have some kind of history?"

"Yeah..." She looked at him angrily. "He fucking cheated on me with some green femboy."

"Actually..." Gamebang interrupted. "I'm uh, divorced from that guy now."

"Did you cheat on him too."

"Yes..."

"As I thought. You only got with me by cheating on someone you used to date for me. Another victim... You dating anyone currently?"

"No..." He looked sad. "Um, the last one I dated kind of... She did the same things I did to my other partners."

"Well, now you know how it feels huh. You reap what you sow."

She gazed her attention back to me. "Obama, I can't accept this alliance. Not after all of this."

Suddenly, a couple knights surrounded me with weapons.

She looked at me with fierce vengeance on her mind.

"Your actions today can be considered an act of war. So let me return the favor."

Oh god no. This can't be happening.

I had no choice but to beg.

"W-Wait!-" I tried to speak, but I suddenly felt an a bolt of electricity on my back. The pain was unbearable.

Before I knew it, I passed out.

Gamebang POV

Holy fuck, they just tazed Obama. He's fucked. They're taking him away.

"Get these guys in a cell too." Aqua said.

Oh no.

Her knights grabbed all of us and tossed us inside individual cells that kind of look like fish tanks.

Eren was screaming and banging on the glass to be freed. "I DONT WANT THAT! BEING IN PRISON!? I WANT TO BE FREE FOR 10 YEARS AT LEAST!!"

I decide that it's hopeless and stay silent.

Then, I hear my cell open. It's Aqua.

"Hey, bitch." She said to me. Yeah... I deserve that.

"Aqua... Do what you want to me, but please don't go to war with the surface world."

"What good does hurting you do at this point."

"... I'm sorry. But I know that means nothing to you... And Venti, and everyone else I was with..."

"Be glad cheating isn't illegal in your country."

"I guess..."

"You know, Gamebang. I felt... severely hurt when you cheated on me. You threw me put like I was a toy you were done with. It makes me sick that you've done this to more people."

"I'm a terrible person, I know. I succumb to the worst parts of myself because I can never be a good person. The reason why I could never commit to a relationship was because I never moved on from this one girl I talked to decades ago. Ciarda. Then, I finally got her. She was just as bad as me, and I finally knew what it felt to be used."

"Would you ever forgive her?"

"No..."

"That's how I feel about you."

I hold in the tears. God damn it...

"So self aware, yet you do nothing to solve it." Aqua said.

"I don't know how to be better. Maybe I never will be. All I have done in the world of love is hurt those who have loved me for someone I loved who would hurt me. Despite all of this, I got away with it all."

"Well, it's only a matter of time. You won't get away with it, GB. Justice always prevails."

"Are you sure? It sure hasn't prevailed on me yet after all these years..."

"There will come a day where all you'll lose everything. Your joys will break into pieces you can never repair."

"I hope that day comes... I deserve it."

Silence covers the room, until she speaks once again.

"I wasn't...the best person." Aqua said. "Back in the early konusuba days, I was just this spoiled brat that cared only for myself. I made everyone around me miserable. But Kazuma, Megumin, and Darkness stayed with me. The day I lost my Godhood was the day I broke. I lost it because of me. I finally knew I was the problem, and so I hated myself for it. I thought that everyone should hate me, but my friends stayed even though they shouldn't. They helped me. I didn't need Godhood or anything, I just needed them. But sometimes, it's like a drug. Because when presented with the opportunity to rule Atlantis, I accidentally killed them all. I killed the people who helped me. I didn't want to be a ruler anymore, but Atlantis needed one. I rule this city to protect its people, and when presented with potential danger I do not back down. In a way, I'm kinda spoiling my own people. I found my resolve to simply protect others. When I couldn't be forgiven, I didn't keep being a horrible person. I changed. Even if it meant redemption was never possible, I didn't want redemption. I just wanted to be good, and that's what I've been trying to do. It's the least I could do for all I've done."

She looked at me with a look I only recognized from our relationship, but it was devoid of love. She spoke.

"There will come a day where your joys will become pieces you can't repair. But I believe in the day you will repair yourself to never break another glass of joy ever again. Because despite everything, I believe everyone can be a good person."

I was stunned, moved by her words. I was brought to tears.

"You haven't really tried to be better, because you hate yourself. You think you'll never be good. So I ask of you, as someone who will never forgive you, Gamebang... Can you be a better person?"

Through my muffled cries, I manage to speak a single. "Y-Yes..."

"Good. I believe in you the same way my friends did."

I began to speak my resolve. "I-I will become better... for Alizeh..."

"Alizeh?"

"I want to be a better person for her... Alizeh... My daughter."

"Hm, that's a good start. Keep at it, GB."

I simply nodded. "Thank you, Aqua."

"Mhm. Now spend all your time here in prison while I go to war."

And thennnn my tears stopped. I kinda forgot amidst all that character development that something big was happening.

"Aqua, wait-" She closed my cell. God damn it.

"What?" I heard Aqua say outside of my cell. What's happening. "What do you mean he's not there anymore?"

Huh?

"I'm sorry, your highness. Com Insydeme has escaped the castle."

"Are you fucking kidding me!?"

Wait what. Isn't that the terrorist guy?

Wait a minute... Where's Michael?

Michael POV

It took a lot of effort, but I managed to sneak away right before they arrested everyone. I took Com with me to the place they couldn't find him in with the hostages. The Titanic. This should buy us time.

"You get one chance for redemption, Com." I told the tied up guy as I pointed my gun. "I realized something during Aqua's presentation about our alleged act of war. We've been distracting her apparently. That got me thinking... What made you kidnap those people?"

"Look man, I can't tell you."

I immediately shot the gun in the air. He flinched and cowered.

"Why did you kidnap them."

"B-Because someone asked me to!"

"Who did."

"I don't know them..."

"Describe them."

"I-It was a woman. Looked to be 18. But..."

"But what."

"Half of her body looked like it was glowing. Glowing the color green or something close to it. The other half was just as normal as a human body."

"Was this woman bringing anything else?"

"Yeah... Some large machine she's somehow carrying on a string. She has the strength to carry it somehow."

"Where was she headed."

"I... I can't."

"TELL ME!"

"THE MARIANA TRENCH! TO THE CHALLENGER DEEP!"

"And she asked you to kidnap those politicians..."

"Y-Yes..."

"Just as I thought. Aqua was half right on her guesses. Yes, she was being distracted, but not by us. No, we were also being distracted. Putting the focus away from the real threat, which was the time machine this woman is carrying into the deepest part of the ocean."

"T-Time machine?"

"Com, why did you follow her orders."

"She... She promised she'd bring a better world."

"You wanted that?"

"Y-Yes... She promised a world where all our previous sins were erased. Every living person's sins."

"That's stupid. You need to learn from your mistakes instead of forgetting they exist."

"But... I made so many mistakes..."

"Then learn from those mistakes and be better, Com. That's what a person should do."

"..."

"But we're too occupied to have a deep talk right now. Us and Atlantis just got tricked into shenanigans that distract from the greater threat of the time machine. She's deep in the Mariana Trench and we're still here fighting one another! AND YOU HELPED HER!"

I grabbed him and stared at his cowardly face for minutes.

"But I'm giving you a chance for redemption." I said. "It seems she chose you specifically for this task. One for Aqua being such a big fan of you that she'll forget her duties, and second... You have the skills to keep politicians hostage without anyone finding you. We only found you by pure chance, Com."

"What are you..."

"Help the others escape Atlantis, take them to the Mariana Trench. Take me and Obama to the surface world to report the ocean world's large scale attack."

"I..."

"Come on, Com, we made a song together... Let's do the right thing."

The silence of the depths surrounded us.

Then, Com nodded. Agreeing to my request.

Alright then... I untie Com and we head off to Atlantis. We're going to break my friends out.

[Insert GenshinPlace member] POV

Well... This is quite the predicament. It's been a couple hours since we've been imprisoned, and I think everyone is starting to lose his mind.

"I LOVE COCK! I LOVE MEN! I HATE WOMEN! I NEED CUM!" Eren keeps shouting for no reason. Everytime he gets too loud, Morbius bangs his cell. He really needs his freedom.

On the other hand, Gamebang is busy licking the toilet seat inside his own cell, somehow believing that if he licks enough it will dissolve and he will have made an escape route.

"This... Slimy, foggy, yellow texture on the toilet..." Gamebang whispers quietly. "This sticky smelly substance is the key to getting us out..." He continues to lick with disturbing grunts and moans.

"Gamebang, stop. You're gonna get another STD." I said.

"No no no! This is how we'll escape! Just a bit more licking of this yellow slimy liquid that sticks to every part of my teeth mmmmmm..."

We're going to die.

BAM!

Suddenly, the walls of our cells are destroyed into pieces. Outside, we see knocked out guards. Obama and Com stand like heroes in front of us, but their faces quickly turn to horror as they saw what Gamebang was doing.

"IT WORKED! LICKING THE TOILET WORKED!" Gamebang shouted with joy. "COME ON, GANG! IT'S TIME TO SAVE THE WORLD!" He started laughing maniacally as bits and pieces of whatever he licked floated away from his mouth.

Michael Jackson POV

After some wandering in pure blue darkness, wearing these suits that protect our bodies, we eventually made it with the help of Com.

We made it to the Mariana Trench.

Along the way, we saw at least 50,000 Atlantean soldiers swimming to the surface for their attack. This is something that cannot be ignored. Thankfully, with the help of Com we were able to not be detected. No wonder our enemy hired him. However, after seeing that army I now realize what I have to do.

While escaping Atlantis, we also grabbed Obama's unconscious body along the way. I've just been carrying him this entire time. This war will kill many and it will not end anytime soon. This fighting has to end.

We stand before the entrance of the Mariana Trench. We stare at this ginormous hole and the abyss inside it.

"Alright guys... This is it." I said.

"You're not coming?" Eren asked.

"This war Aqua started... It's my duty to stop it. If I don't, then what good will finding the time machine do when the person tricked us into all of this."

"I guess... This is where we separate."

"Yeah... Don't die, guys. I know you guys think that you're replaceable because you're soldiers, but... I don't believe in that. You're the ones who are gonna save the world."

I put Obama's body on my back and I hold Com's hand.

"Com, take us to the surface world. Quickly. I need to warn them about this attack."

Com nodded and gets ready to leave the gang.

I stare at them and the Mariana Trench, wishing them the best of luck on their journey into the abyss. I believe in them.

Com swims us away. Gamebang, [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, and Morbius slowly fade away from my view into the darkness of the sea, leaving me in the void once again.

Chapter 8: Rapture of the deep.

Gamebang POV

Here we were at last. The hole of the Mariana Trench. Our destination... The Challenger Deep. The deepest known part of the ocean.

I look at [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, and Morbius. All of us are taking deep breaths. From what I see, the hole is pitch black.

Eren looks at the device that tracks the time machine. 2,000m in the deep. We can catch up.

And with that, we prepare ourselves for the journey ahead.

And so, we jumped into the abyss.

Sea level: 1,000m

So far, we've been falling and that's all. The blue light at the top had disappeared and we're floating in darkness. The pressure is more powerful than it was in Atlantis, but still tolerable.

To do something, Morbius had been staring at some random stone he picked off from the walls of this hole, using his flashlight to get a better look. From Atlantis, the water when lit up was light blue. Here, it's turning a little teal but darker. But that's mostly on the light near objects, since everything else looks dark blue.

We've been saving up our energy on our BCDs, the things that can make us sink faster. The equipment we have is very limited.

We didn't see any creatures, well, we did but they were all dead. We're still in the twilight zone.

Sea level: 2,000m

The pressure increased and I feel tighter. I have to control my breathing to make this easier on myself. Our suits should be able to protect our bodies from this, but it will still hurt.

Morbius picked up a new rock for himself to play with. Color is the same.

No plants or anything here, just rock. We're still just floating in the void. Sometimes I can't distinguish if I was closing my eyes or not, because all I see is the same thing. Darkness.

Sea level: 3,000m

My throat choked the moment the pressure was increased. I had to seriously control myself. [Insert GenshinPlace member] was having trouble handling the pressure, so I helped them.

It was about time to use our BCDs again. With its help, we immediately sank faster until we had to stop using it to save energy.

Sea level: 4,000m

I think it's say to say that we've exited the twilight zone and entered the midnight zone. I can tell because it's somehow darker than black in here, and we saw some creatures that resided in the midnight zone. The long-armed squid, eltanin antenna, cadborosaurus, it was all here.

Pressure wasn't that bad this time. Morbius' new rock was heavy enough to make him fall faster, so we all followed his directions and attached one to our foot.

It's getting to me, to be honest. The feeling of floating. Nothing to stand on, nothing to rely on. Some people say it's freeing, but not to me, I need a floor to feel like I'm still connected to this world.

It has been an hour since we entered.

Sea level: 5,000m

The Abyssal Zone.

Something cool we realized was the Titanic was at least at 5,600m deep in the ocean. Which made us realize Atlantis had been built in a much lower place than we thought. I guess you don't really notice when Atlantis is built to withstand the effects of the deep, which we feel right now.

Speaking of effects, pressure increased and made me feel like my suit was actually body because of how tight everything was starting to feel.

I think the pressure got to Eren, because he passed out for a few minutes before regaining consciousness.

Again, with Morbius shining a light on a rock. Things are starting to look less blue nor teal and just...normal.

Sea level: 6,000m

I gotta admit, my fear of the ocean is starting to fuck with me. It really is starting to freak me out that there's just pure darkness and I can't see anything. I don't know what's in front or behind me besides my friends. I don't know what is here. I don't know which is left or right. I don't know what's here.

And not to mention the creatures here. Giant Goblin Sharks, the Pensacola Sea Serpent, Paleodictyon. They all look so freaky. Some have the widest smiling jaws for a fish.

The moment that made me piss my pants was when one of these creatures tried to eat my face. Thankfully, my suit protected me. But I could just see their creepy appearance trying to get into my helmet. I knew I was safe, but what if? They were just biting and slightly scratching my helmet, and I could see through the clear glass. I didn't scream. There were no sounds except the munching of this creature's teeth on my glass. Eventually, it left me alone.

It's already hard to breathe under this pressure.

Sea level: 7,000m

Before I knew it, we were done with the Abyssal Zone.

We were in the Hadal Zone.

Named after Hades, the Greek God of the Underworld.

We saw a few of the Supergiant Amphipod.

Somehow, the water was beginning to look a little more blue, but still complete darkness. I guess I'd say a dark dark dark blue.

Yes, our suit was protecting us from the pressure, but it was an agonizing feeling. I just feel so tight and uncomfortable.

Sea level: 8,000

I realized that everything about me is contained in this suit. If I breathe, it's all inside.

If I need to scream for help, no one will hear me except me.

A few Bristle Worms came up to us and just floated around us. I don't like what they look like.

I suddenly felt the urge to throw up because of this pressure, but I had to contain myself because nothing is cleaning my stuff up, nor is it safe to open my helmet.

Sea level: 9,000m

When the animal is literally names 'Cutthroat Eels' don't be surprised why I pissed myself when one of them came to us. I was watching in horror as it tried to attack [Insert GenshinPlace member]. Obviously, it couldn't penetrate the suit, but I really didn't want this thing around anymore.

Sea level: 10,000

We all started to feel it, or maybe it's been with us the entire time and we didn't notice.

We felt drunk for some reason. This disorientation. My mind is foggy.

When you venture far enough in the ocean, you'll feel this. This Nitrogen Narcosis. This Martini Effect.

Or more commonly as 'The Rapture of the Deep.'

It truly was harder than ever to not throw up. I feel so fucking dizzy. It feels like I'm having a panic attack, but it's not that. It was a struggle to just breathe.

At that point, I just had to scream my lungs out.

...

Ground. Floor.

Oh my god.

We made it.

The deepest known point of the ocean.

The Challenger Deep.

It was still that dark blue color I described, but the floor emits some kind of brown ooze. The creatures here, they're all just so creepy. I don't really know their names.

Eels with the largest mouths. Spiders as long as humans. Squids larger than us. Wide fish with four eyes. Most of them are large for the same reason dinosaurs were large. For the sake of food.

The pressure was strong. It felt like I was carrying a hundred dumbbells.

We walked around for a bit, wondering how to find our target.

"What now?" I asked Eren.

"This space isn't that wide. Everyone should split up and find something. Activate the suit's wide flashlight feature if you find something. The one that lights up the entire suit. It should be bright enough for everyone to see."

And with that, we split up.

I get distracted by the fish down here. I know that if they enter past everything we went through and to sunlight, they will die from it. Their bodies are not built for it. They're trapped here in the same way I guess humans are trapped on Earth. We'll die if we go to space. Even if we do get past the moon, it will be undeniably the hardest thing to survive. If you think about it, the scary monsters under the sea and humans aren't so different afterall.

We're all trapped.

And then, I hear a loud click. I look behind me to see [Insert GenshinPlace member] activated their wide flashlight. They found something.

I start running to the light, I see Eren beside me running to it too. We get closer and eventually everyone is in one place. [Insert GenshinPlace member] turns off their light and points at something.

It is clear as day on what it is.

The enemy we've been looking for. Like they said, it was a woman. Half of their body was glowing teal. Their glow covers the brown ooze of the ocean around them. And tied to her leg was what we were looking for. The Time Machine.

"..." She was busy punching the ground. "!" She noticed us and began to punch faster.

We immediately ran towards her. But we were too slow, she punched a massive hole in the ground and went through it. We make it to that hole and see darkness inside. [Insert GenshinPlace member] sticks their hand inside. There's an other side.

We had no time to waste. We needed to go inside.

No, we had to go deeper.

Sea level: ?????

We went in. The area was wider than the Challenger Deep. To the point where I can't see any walls anywhere. It was clearly a large place.

Unlike the previous place, there was no dark blue or brown ooze here. Only black. Only the void.

We went inside the abyss, but now we're going beyond it.

We followed the glow of the woman and chased her relentlessly. We used a large amount of our BCD's energy to sink faster to her, but she was using the power of the wind to boost herself. She was an anemo user. The weight of carrying the time machine by her leg also gave her an advantage. We followed that technique too and grabbed some large rocks.

We kept shooting our guns, but she was faster than bullets. Plus, the pressure of the ocean affected our shooting and our bodies.

She shot back at us with her wind powers. We couldn't avoid it and were lifted up by a bit by the wind. She used her powers again to create whirlpools. We dodged all of them, but they halted our progress.

As we battled in pitch black nothingness, I felt the Rapture of the Deep affect me more and more. I keep missing my shots against her.

And then, she boosted herself with wind again. She went further than us and disappeared into the darkness. We need to catch up quick.

"SHIT!" Eren yelled out. We all felt the same thing. Our protective suits were breaking. The pressure was getting too strong.

"THIS IS IT! WE'RE GONNA DIE!" Eren was screaming. I also started screaming. And so did [Insert GenshinPlace member] and Morbius.

As we fell further and further, our suits were cracking like ice.

Boom. They all broke. The moment I saw the destruction, I saw my life flash before my eyes. And I wished I was better.

We weren't dead. In fact, we felt completely normal.

It didn't feel like swimming either. It was just...floating.

We looked above us and saw...a weird wobble in the area we were once in. Even in darkness, you could see this wobble effect. Eren touched it, and his hand started exploding blood everywhere.

"SHIT! FUCK!" He pulled his hand back into the area we were currently in. But his blood wasn't randomly floating anywhere, no, it was floating upwards into the wobbly area.

Curious, Morbius took out some of the rocks he had picked out and let them go from his hand. They all floating upwards to the wobbly area.

We realized we were floating up too, and immediately made ourselves sink down a bit.

Clearly, the area above is where we experienced all the agonizing pressure, which is why Eren's hand was injured. No, that area is where the rules of the ocean applied. Here, we can breathe without help from technology.

We immediately start heading deeper.

There's no animals, nothing. Just nothing but darkness. Maybe we really were in the void.

We kept going deeper. This continued for 30 minutes. We just see nothing.

Wait... I see something. It's light. Not the enemy's light. No, this was gigantic. This light may as well have been the entire ocean floor, that's how big it was. I couldn't see it's edges or it's ends. It was ginormous.

In the ocean, when light is given, you'd usually see everything as somewhat blue.

That's what I expected when the light was shining. It was bright enough to make everything we see blue only. That's what I expected.

I was wrong.

RED.

Everything was red. Still, there was nothing but red. Red as blood. All we saw was red.

All I'd give to touch the safety of the surface world again. Anything but here.

I felt like I shouldn't be here. I shouldn't have ever come here. I wanted to be up there again. And I could clearly see the same feeling in my team's eyes.

And then, we saw something. This little black dot. It was far away from us, so we headed to it. Eventually, there were ten black dots. Then there were hundreds. Thousands. Uncountable.

We head closer to them and then we saw a glimpse of what they really were. I hoped it wasn't what I thought it was.

We got close enough.

Floating all around us were dead bodies. Humans. No sea animal or anything, only human.

It looked like they were all slightly burnt alive.

They were all floating upwards.

Finally, I threw up. And then I screamed. Everyone else didn't comfort me, they were also screaming.

I needed to get out of this sight immediately. I swam deeper, past thousands of bodies. Everyone followed me.

And then we stopped swimming when we got to the source of the large light. This blinding Brightness. In front of us was her. Our enemy. The time machine right beside her.

"STOP RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE!" I brought out my gun and pointed at her. I was going to kill her for everything she's done. For tricking us, for igniting war, for stealing the time machine, for making us follow her into this hell. I had to make sure she suffered for it all.

She turned around and I saw her face. Nothing I experienced in the agonizing pressure of the ocean would compare to this.

"Alizeh...?"

"Hello, dad."

I let go of my gun. Before it could float up away, Eren grabbed it and pointed it at her.

Half of Alizeh's body was glowing anemo energy. The other half was what I knew her as.

And then I remembered.

"Your mortal body and celestial body..." I said. "You let go of the ring?"

She nodded.

"Why?" I asked.

"I needed it to..." She was hesitating on speaking, but eventually she did. "To handle what I'm about to do."

"Alizeh... Why?"

"Dad, I almost raped someone."

"Huh...?"

"Months ago, not long after you and Venti were divorced, I got rejected from college. I made friends with Sucrose at that time and I invited to drive her home. Amidst my grief and darkness, I kissed her. I tried to go further, but she didn't want to. She pushed me away and I kept driving. I got so mad at everything I crashed the car. When I woke up, she was dead. When the police questioned me, I lied. I told them Sucrose was the one driving, and we were going to have sex at her place. I told them she was the one who was drunk that night, even though it was me. To top it all off, hours prior when I was driving I hit a stop sign. Because of that, a family crashed their car. I caused their deaths."

I couldn't say anything. I was just stunned.

I just couldn't see my daughter like what she was saying.

"The reason why I did all of this..." She continued. "Was so that I could go back in time..."

"To fix that incident?" I said.

"Sort of... I wanna fix everything." She looked at me. "Dad, do you miss Venti?"

"Honey... I've moved o-"

"Did you ever wish Ciarda worked out?"

"I- how do you know about her."

"Do you wish you never cheated on all those people? On Venti, on Aqua, everyone. Would you rather they all be yours at once?"

"Wha...What?"

"Would you rather have the family you lost back? I do. There's so many things I want to fix in this world."

"Then why don't you use the time machine now and fix it?" Eren said.

"Well, solving every issue I want to fix requires more fuel than ever before. An impossibly large amount. Second, I kinda used it all up."

"You time traveled?" I asked.

"No, I tried using my celestial body to time travel by hand. Surely, I thought my body was strong enough. It wasn't. That's why half my mortal body is gone, and why there's no fuel left."

I tried to hold in my tears and ask more questions. "So... I'm guessing you're gonna use the Celestial Meteor as fuel. But Alizeh, the time machine has a limit. It can't handle the entirety of the Meteor. I've read it's size."

"I know. Why do you think I was using my body? The time machine converts the meteor energy into energy for time travel. With my body, which came from an Archon, I could consume that time travel energy for myself and use it as my own. But my body wasn't strong enough, even if it came from a God."

Alizeh pointed at the shining bright light. "That light... That's the Celestial Meteor. We finally made it, didn't we? But what do you think is under that?"

"Another space of nothingness?" [Insert GenshinPlace member] said.

"Wrong. Underneath the Meteor...is the ancient city of R'lyeh. Where Cthulu resides."

"R'lyeh?" Eren said. "Cthulu?"

"Yes. The Archon War didn't exactly kill every God except the seven. Some have been hiding all this time. They've been sleeping. That includes the leader of The Old Ones, Cthulu. Who is more powerful than the seven current Gods combined. R'lyeh is strange to say the least. Our minds are too primitive to comprehend its non-euclidean geometry and structure. But safe to say, it's all abandoned and broken. Only Cthulu lives there."

"What do you plan to do with Cthulu?" Eren asked.

"Simple. I'm going to summon Cthulu and kill him. And then I'll steal his celestial energy to make myself more powerful to handle an extraordinary amount of time travel energy. Yes, I know the time machine has a limit and can't handle the amount of time travel energy I'm asking it to handle, but that's why I'm here to handle that stuff for it. You've seen what happens when there's too much of it in the machine, right? It'll just throw it away in some random direction depending on gravity or the wind. And here, where we are, everything floats up. Which is perfect, since once Cthulu is summoned, he'll be going to the surface world. I'll battle him there and once I'm done, the time travel energy will be right there for me to consume. Did that make sense?"

"I'm kinda confused." Eren said. "But what I wanna know is what you did at Atlantis. Including Com."

"Ah yes. That guy. He also wanted to fix things, so he followed my orders as I promised him I'd make him more famous than he already is. He was perfect since he had skills that Atlantis couldn't solve, and he was Aqua's idol. Those are already two big points of distraction."

"Let me guess, us being arrested was also your plan?" Eren said, clearly mad about that incident.

"Actually, that was all you guys. I didn't even know my dad was coming. I just knew PolandBall knew about me going into the Challenger Deep and I needed to distract them. Actually, I didn't even plan the war at all. Sure, I planned for some kind of conflict, but not this big. You all did that. You're the ones who made yourselves look bad. You made my job easier."

"But not easy enough since we've caught up to you, haven't we?" Eren stated.

"But you can't really stop me, can you?" She said. "I could just kill you all using my anemo powers."

"Then why haven't you..."

"Because dad's here." She said as if she was still a little kid.

We stared at one another.

"Dad, I offer you a choice. Join me in creating a better world. Join me in having everything you ever wanted. Join me in erasing all of our past sins. I want you to join me... Let's bring back the family we lost."

I find her offer...likable. I... I wanted to do it.

"Gamebang!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] yelled. "This isn't what you stand for. Don't do it!"

They're right. This isn't right. I can't do it. I promised myself I'd do the right thing from now on.

"Dad... Please."

The voice of my daughter is enough to somehow convince me I should do it.

"Gamebang, you'd be betraying everything you said to Aqua."

But [Insert GenshinPlace member] made me remember.

I don't know what to do.

"Dad..."

I looked at her.

"You reap what you sow."

...

"I'm sorry, honey. I can't join you." I said.

Suddenly, her determined expression turned into faint sadness. The one you'd see when a child gets scolded by their parents. I see her mouth open, she tried to say something. It closed as she couldn't find the right words.

Without anything to say, she just flew away to the Meteor.

"ALIZEH!" I shouted, trying to stop her.

"Gamebang, come on. We need to get her." Eren said as he flew after her. I followed suite.

Alizeh landed on the meteor. She started punching it with all her might.

BAM! She made another hole.

She untied the time machine from her leg and went inside it. I hear her handling the controls.

The time machine glows and blasts a line of energy that connected to the meteor. It's consuming its essence. It's time travel energy.

"ME AND MORBIUS WILL STOP IT!" Eren said. "JUST GO AFTER HER, YOU TWO!"

Me and [Insert GenshinPlace member] moved further, and into the hole she made.

Sea level: R'yleh, The Sunken City.

Suddenly, we felt like we were back in water. At least, the rules of the ocean applied here again. But it didn't feel like the agonizing pressure of the Challenger Deep, it felt like a beach's level, aka steady. The sunlight zone, but it wasn't. We were still an unknowable amount deep within the ocean.

What I saw at first was colors changing rapidly. Enough to give someone a seizure.

Then somehow, the colors formed in my mind to somewhat comprehend something.

Buildings that shouldn't connect are connecting in the sky. The palaces are left and right at the same time. The ground is the sky and yet I am floating down to it.

R'yleh was non-euclidean in geometry and architecture. Something we can't comprehend.

I knew I wouldn't know which was left or right if I stepped on its floors, so I stayed to float and follow Alizeh's glow.

We swam above these structures that don't make sense. They bend to extreme levels. And some structures have eyes that follow Alizeh. A few buildings are at the top and at the ground at the same time. Some are broken yet looked fixed. They're all dark green yet it feels like I'm looking at a color never seen before. And yet, with all these structures not making sense, I can say what they resemble in some way. Tentacles.

We make it to where Alizeh is standing. A giant church covered in tentacles. The doors were about 50ft tall.

"Good morning." Alizeh said as she held on its gigantic doors and opened it herself. We didn't stop her, but we couldn't anyway. She'd always find a way.

The doors opened wide and the three of us stood before darkness.

Two giant eyes glowed red and looked at her. Two wings appeared next to the doors. Tentacles loomed beneath the eyes. And then, two hands held the door to make way for the entirety of the beast to come out. We watched as this Lovecraftian entity stood up and made us feel like ants.

It screamed an unholy sound. All of us, including Alizeh, covered our ears. The sound shook the entire city and even destroyed some of the buildings.

When the sound stopped, I looked at Cthulu. It's wings started moving, and the beast flew up.

It destroyed a giant portion of the Meteor just to get through, some pieces of it float up. Cthulu flies faster.

We make it back up to Eren and Morbius to see the time machine blasting time travel energy upwards to throw away the amount it can't handle.

"WE CAN'T STOP IT. WE'LL DIE IF WE GO NEAR IT." Eren talking about the time machine.

"Dad." Alizeh called. She threw the same rope she used for the machine and attached it to Cthulu. "Grab on. I'm not letting you die here. Take them too if you want."

I had no choice. How else were we gonna get back up?

"GUYS! LET'S GO!" I called the others.

"AGH. DAMN IT." Eren yelled as everyone ran towards me.

Alizeh held out her hand for me to grab. I couldn't believe she was doing this. What difference does it make if I stop her here? Cthulu is going to kill everyone. Everyone knew that as much as she needed to be stopped, she was our only way out. And if she says she can, she can defeat Cthulu.

I took her hand and held it.

"Brace for impact." She said. "We're gonna go up the entire journey to the surface in just three seconds. That's how fast he is. But you will feel the pressure of the ocean. Don't worry, you'll live. But it'll hurt."

I didn't have time to respond. Cthulu began to fly at a concerning high speed. I felt my body consumed by fire and yet I was underwater. I couldn't even scream.

We made our way up. And I felt the pressure. I didn't have the suit this time.

Sea level: 11,000

Sea level: 10,000

Sea level: 9,000

Sea level: 8,000

One second has passed.

My body feels like it is being squeezed out of blood. My eyes slowly pop out.

Sea level: 7,000

Sea level: 6,000

Sea level: 5,000

When we reach 5,000m, we went through Atlantis and destroyed half of the city. In one millisecond, I saw what had happened. Buildings flown everywhere. Blood flowed from all its creatures and citizens.

In one millisecond, I heard the destruction and the screams of the people. Oh my god.

Two seconds have passed.

Sea level: 4,000

Sea level: 3,000

Sea level: 2,000

Sea level: 1,000

Sea level: Surface.

Three seconds have passed.

With all that had happened in those three seconds, I lost consciousness.

Chapter 9: Water on our shores.

Obama POV

"Thank you, Michael. For getting me back to the surface for safety, and practically leading and acting while I was gone." I told Michael. "I guess if I ever die, I know who my replacement would be."

"Hey, don't say that, man." Michael lightly slapped my face. "Focus on right now. We got a battle to fight."

He was right. Here we were on the beaches, standing on steel walls alongside thousands of soldiers loading up their weapons. The sun is setting, and the people of the ocean are coming.

I've alerted PolandBall about this invasion on our shores. We got to work immediately to set up a wall of defense. A wide steel wall surrounded by soldiers.

"What are we looking at, chief." I asked one of the analysts working on a computer to know about the whereabouts of the enemy. "They're near. I estimate a final 5 minutes of preparation."

"Then we better start aiming."

Michael stands on top of the wall, megaphone in hand. "LOAD UP! AIM FOR THE SEA!"

Every soldier followed his commands and had their guns ready to shoot.

"WHEN YOU SEE ONE ENEMY STEP ON OUR SAND, QUICKLY LIGHT THE LINE." Michael shouted. The line was a strategy we made last minute, but it should work. We're aiming for defense, not offense.

I head up the wall and stand alongside Michael.

"You shouldn't be here, Barack." He told me. "You're leader of PolandBall, you need to stay safe at base."

"What kind of king doesn't fight his own battles?" I responded.

Suddenly, we heard a sound in the water.

"Someone, find what that was." Michael instructed. Someone proceeded to analyze the ocean from afar using a large light.

They came across one area in the water that had bubbles forming.

And out came the enemy, dressed in blue.

"SHOOT!" Michael yelled. The battle had begun.

The land soldiers started shooting at the water soldiers. Some were hit and some were blocking bullets, but most were surviving. The water soldiers struck back, shooting their own guns at us. Some of ours were hit, but we were doing pretty much the same as them. The water soldiers didn't stop their march onto our sand. It was slow.

And then, I see something slowly rise from the waters. It's not a soldier, it's something huge.

Out came a giant ship, with Aqua on deck. And then, came more smaller ships that were following Aqua's.

"Fuck!" I said. "I didn't anticipate the ships."

"I did." Michael said. "Don't worry about it. I got a plan."

I just had to take him up for his word.

The water soldiers got close enough to shore for one soldier to finally step on the sand. It was time.

A soldier from the edge of the battle field ignited flame into a hidden rope under the sand. Fires blew out from the ground. From the edge of the wall to the other edge, surrounding our defenses and keeping out and burning our enemies. The line had been burnt.

Our soldiers kept shooting, even when some of the enemies were burning and screaming. When some got through, they were immediately shot.

"I don't know how that line of fire is gonna stop those ships." I said.

"Just trust me, man. Now give me the radio." Michael asked. I handed it to him.

He started speaking on the radio to someone. "Get in the sub. Now. They're right above. Over."

And then we waited...

...

A single submarine swam under the ships without being caught. Inside of it were thousands of explosives, and a man willing to die.

The submarine slowly made its way under the center of the ships' formation.

The man stopped the submarine's tracks and lit a match under the cold darkness. He took one final breath and dropped the match.

BOOM!

I watched as an enormous explosion engulfed the army of ships. Some even being flown in the air. The water was even burning.

"SHOOT THE BARRELS!" Michael yelled out. Our cannons were prepared and inside were barrels. I looked into one of them.

"Nitrogen, Sulfur, Chlorine, Tabun... Michael." I looked to him. "These are chemical weapons."

"Am I not allowed to use them? Even if we exploded their ships, these people thrive in water. They'll swim their way here instead. We need that water poisoned."

"But..." I don't know why I hesitated this attack. "If we do this, there no longer may be a peaceful solution. This fighting will never end."

Michael sighed. "Fine, Obama. I'll put these away."

"If we lose, then blame me, Michael."

"Sir..."

"I know. But please."

Michael slightly nodded and went back to putting boulders of flame onto the cannons and shooting them to the ocean.

...

Aqua awoke shortly after the explosion. Her mouth was bleeding and she was weak. She looked around her to see half of her ships destroyed.

But she wasn't going to give up here, she needed to have faith in her plan.

They kept moving forward. Firing back with their own cannons and shooting the wall.

Aqua began using her powers and aims at our shores. She blasted water across the entire beach and rained on the line of flame, extinguishing our fires.

What she didn't anticipate was that we had more than one line. We lit another line of fire immediately and engulfed her soldiers in flame.

She banged her deck in frustration. She yelled out to her ships to move faster, and for her soldiers to shoot harder.

It was getting close, she just needed to wait a little more for her plan to work.

...

A couple of water soldiers dug under our beach and made a tunnel. One of them carried a bombs that could annihilate meters of dirt and sand. They've been digging the entire time the battle had been going, and they were close to the location of our wall.

Eventually, they made it. They began digging more from left and right instead of forward, making a line under the wall. One of them started placing each explosive.

After they were done, they dug another path that went behind the wall. When they were done with that path, they blocked it and trapped themselves inside, except for one, who lit a fire on a single match. All of them would explode, from left to right.

...

While defending our shores, Michael noticed something in the left edge of the wall. The soldiers there were panicking. He was planning to go there and see what the problem was, but he didn't.

Because he saw it consumed by a large explosion that came from the ground.

And then another explosion came next to it. Then another, then another. Each destroying our wall.

"OBAMA!" He yelled to me. "GET DOWN!"

He lunged at me and we were thrown off the wall.

The fires that came from the ground each destroyed major parts of the wall, until the wall was nothing but pieces. Our soldiers were caught off guard, and many died and injured. Suddenly, our defenses weren't efficient, and Aqua had just extinguished another one of our flames. This time, we didn't light another line immediately.

And so, the water soldiers went further onto our shores and battled our land soldiers.

No matter how many smart attacks we had against them, they were waiting for this one to work against everything we built.

The water soldiers underground came out and started attacking us.

In the middle of the battlefield, Michael woke me up.

"Shit, we were outplayed, man." Michael said, his mouth covered in blood and his arm slightly burnt.

I got up and felt my left hand completely burnt. I couldn't feel anything on it anymore.

We both looked to the shores to see all our defenses destroyed, and both sides having an equal fight. There was at least one death every five seconds.

This time, we didn't have anything to stop it. The ships have landed on our beach and out came all its enemies. Aqua walked down her ship and began to walk amidst the chaos, killing anything that comes in her way.

Her powers were unbeatable for us normal humans, there was no way for any of us to defeat her. She got closer to me and Michael.

"Stay right here..." Michael said as he ran towards Aqua.

Both proceeded to engage in hand to hand combat. Michael was swift in dodging her blasts of water, but he couldn't get a single punch to her.

Michael was using everything he had, but it simply wasn't enough. She was too powerful.

Eventually, Aqua used a large amount of her powers and grabbed Michael's hand when he was about to punch her. Her arm glowed blue and Michael felt his arm being squeezed.

Boom. Michael's entire arm exploded into blood. He screamed in pain and fell to the ground.

Aqua continued to walk to me. I couldn't do anything. I was weaker than ever before. I was holding my wounds tight.

And then I fell to the ground.

Aqua loomed over me, staring at me.

"Healing." She said as she placed her hand on my head.

Suddenly, I felt better. All my wounds healed and my left hand no longer burnt.

Aqua threw a sword on the ground.

"I'd like an equal fight." She said.

I accepted her proposal and grabbed the sword. I ran towards her. She prepared her staff.

We fought each other using our weapons for quite a bit. I wasn't as experienced in combat as Michael, so I wasn't able to dodge everything she gave me. My torso was getting hit.

Each attack I had was accompanied by a scream of determination to stop her. She was simply too skilled, and I was hit in the back with a devastating blow. I fell to the ground again.

I tried to get up, but Aqua used her staff to pin me down. Her eyes seemed ready to kill me.

"Don't worry, you'll go out like a warrior." She said to me. Her staff went closer to my chest, and I braced for the worst. This was it, I was going to die.

"Huh?" Aqua said as she looked to the ocean. I opened my eyes and looked too to see what she meant.

It couldn't be.

A beam of time travel energy going up to the sky.

"Oh my god." I said.

"You know what that is?" She asked me.

"Gamebang failed."

Her confusion was increased, but she kept pushing her staff on my chest to kill me.

I held her staff to try and stop it. "LISTEN, AQUA!"

"What is it now."

"What that beam is doing is much bigger than both of us. This entire war. Aqua, please."

She ignored my pleas and pushed her staff further, it was starting to hurt.

I looked at her face. It was determined to kill me. Then she looked briefly into the ocean and back to me.

Then back to the ocean with a shocked expression.

I looked to the ocean to see two giant wings rise above the water. And then a large head that had tentacles.

"You know what that is?" I asked her.

"Yeah..." She returned her staff to her back and fell to her knees. "That's the devil..."

I stood up to go and get Michael, but then I went back to Aqua, who was simply still. I needed to convince her.

"Aqua, this is what I was talking about."

"That's... Oh my god, we're dead."

"Aqua, please. Snap out of it!"

"We're dead... We're dead..."

"AQUA! DON'T JUST SIT THERE AND PISS YOURSELF. STAND AND FIGHT!"

"GOD DAMN IT!" She stood up and went to her soldiers. "EVERYONE! STOP FIGHTING THE LAND SOLDIERS AND START SHOOTING CTHULU!"

They followed her orders.

I ran to my soldiers as well. "START THE CANNONS! SHOOT THE CHEMICAL NOW!" I commanded. They followed.

I stared at the giant beast that floated above the ocean. It's red eyes shone brighter than the moon. It's tentacles destroyed anything in its path. It's size was bigger than the eiffel tower. The sounds it made were demonic, and I had to cover my ears whenever it made those sounds. Those who didn't, their heads exploded.

I looked to the shores for something, anything. That's when I saw them, unconscious and injured.

I yelled out as I ran to them.

"GAMEBANG!"

Gamebang POV

I woke up when Obama started shaking my unconscious body. I was really weak, so it took a while for me to stand up.

But when I did, I stared at the beast that loomed above me. I remembered what was happening, and I only had one thought on my mind.

"Where's Alizeh?"

"Huh?" Obama was confused.

"Is my daughter here?"

"Gamebang- no, she isn't. I don't see her at least?"

My chest tightened when I considered the possibilities of what happened to her, but I had to get my act together quick.

"I'll explain later." I told Obama. "Wake the others up. Our goal is to kill that thing."

"You might as well ask Aqua over there. She said it was the devil, so clearly they know about this thing to some extent."

"Alright." I ran off.

I kept running amidst the broken land that was covered in fire and broken pieces. Thousands of soldiers were shooting whatever they had against Cthulu.

"AQUA!" I shouted to her. She was using all her abilities to attack.

"What are you doing here? Do you know about this?"

"Yes, unfortunately."

"Explain later, do you have any ideas on how to defeat it?"

"I..." Nothing came up on my mind. I didn't know what to do. "Do you know some information about Cthulu?"

Aqua grabbed my arm and we ran away from the incoming tentacle attack. When the tentacle slammed the ground, we both flew to the air. Aqua immediately used her powers to make a safe landing with water.

"Yeah... I know that beast is going to destroy everything." Aqua pointed her finger to Cthulu. "If you haven't noticed, that thing is moving. Slowly, but it's moving. And look to the place where we were attacked by that tentacle."

I looked and the ground was all black and almost like slime. But I looked closer and saw tiny tentacles on the ground, growing rapidly like plants.

"That's what's gonna happen to the entire world." She told me. "You can't kill Cthulu. But you can send him back to R'yleh. That's our only option."

"Okay then... We need to bring him down into the ocean before he floats to land."

"Gamebang, Cthulu is heavier than the very soil we stand upon and is somehow flying without worry."

"Well we need to try something."

Aqua sees alot of the soldiers either get down on their knees and start worshipping Cthulu, or go completely mad by the mere sight of him and start eating dirt.

It seems you need tremendous willpower against insanity to even look the guy in the eye.

I guess I have that willpower, considering I have seen the end of the world in the previous timeline where Astolfo happened, and I have ventured deeper into the ocean and saw things no one will ever see, and also kind of time traveled that one time.

Suddenly, I see a massive explosion on Cthulu's feet. After the explosion, I saw his feet turn into goo that fell into the ocean.

"What was that!?" I said.

"Chemical weapons." Michael said as he fired up the cannons.

"Jesus, Michael. You look horrible."

"Yeah, well. I can still manage with one arm." He launched another attack, aiming for Cthulu's chest. It landed and it turned to goo. The goo moved like normal liquid and moved alongside the waves of water. After minutes, those parts that were attacked regenerated back to normal.

"Okay... I have an idea." I said.

"What?" Aqua asked.

"We keep bombing the motherfucker and use the water to send him away. Well, I don't know where, but far away from here."

"No... I think I can do something." Aqua said. "I just need an almost impossible amount of power to achieve it..."

"What are you thinking."

"We take him back to the Mariana Trench and then I use my water powers to take away the water before he turns to goo, and let him fall back to where he belongs. The problem is that the length of water I need to take away is near impossible."

"What would it take for you get the energy needed for that to happen?"

"I could do it easily if I was still a God, but I'm not. So... I'm thinking my life would be enough for it."

"You're going to sacrifice yourself?"

"Yeah..."

"Aqua, I-"

"No time to debate whether it should happen, Gamebang. This is the only way for me to atone for the war I started."

"But it-"

"Shut it. This is an order from the princess. Gather up every bomb you guys have and take him to hell."

I hesitated on her solution, but we had no time left. "Alright then... I'm relying on you to move the water in the direction of the Mariana Trench with the goo."

"Got it."

We went our separate ways.

I caught up to [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, Morbius, Michael, and Obama. Everyone was finally awake.

"Gang's all here." Obama said. "You got something, Gamebang?"

"Yeah... We're gonna need all our nukes."

...

"I can't do it. I haven't used that ability in years, man." Eren said to me, shaking.

"Eren goddamn Yeager, now is the time for you to use your titan powers."

"Gamebang... Those powers of mine, I have too many bad memories of them."

I slapped Eren. "Damn it, man! If you don't bring the bombs inside Cthulu, he's going to kill everything!"

"I..."

"Think about your sister, Mikasa."

"Eh, I can live without her."

"Bro what the fuck."

"What?"

"Okay, fine. Think about Armin."

"Yeah? What about him?"

"Think about his giant veiny horse cock that you love to suck."

"GB, HOW DID YOU KNOW ABO- I MEAN, I'M NOT GAY!"

"Dude, it's the most obvious thing ever. Now think, buddy. The world gets destroyed and Armin dies. His long rod that spurts out a million juice everytime you satisfy him is gone forever."

"N-No... I mean, what?"

"You won't get to lay into his chest and be invited into his loving arms as you suck on his nipples and his long rod sits between you legs."

"I... I..."

"Eren, it's all going to go away if you don't bring those bombs inside Cthulu the same way Armin's thick juicy creamy white substance fills every hole in your body."

"N-No..."

"Look at me, Eren. You can't keep denying you're not gay as fuck."

"I'm n-not... I swear."

"You're gay, Eren Yeager. The gayest motherfucker who ever lived. Even the LGBTQ community is homophobic against you."

"I..."

"SAY IT LOUD AND CLEAR, SOLDIER. YOU LOVE COCK!"

"I CAN'T!"

"SAY IT DAMN YOU!"

"BUT I-"

"SAY IT!"

"ALRIGHT! I LOVE COCK! I LOVE COCK SO MUCH I WANT TO HAVE IT FOR BREAKFAST, LUNCH, AND DINNER!"

"WHAT DO YOU WANNA DO TO YOUR NAILS!?"

"PAINT THEM PINK!"

"HOW WILL YOU SPEAK!?"

"Omg like this babe uwu"

"ARE YOU A TOP OR A BOTTOM!?"

"I'M SUCH A BOTTOM YOU CAN CONSIDER ME DEEPER THAN WE'RE WE WENT LAST CHAPTER."

"WHAT DO YOU THINK OF WOMEN!?"

"EWWWWW"

"WHAT DO YOU THINK OF MEN!?"

"I JUST CUMMED!"

"DO YOU HAVE A BUTTPLUG INSIDE YOUR ASSHOLE RIGHT NOW!?"

"YOU'RE GODDAMN RIGHT!"

"SHOW ME!"

Eren took off his pants and I examined what he had.

"GOD DAMN THATS A BIG ONE, EREN!"

"I CAN HANDLE THE LONGESY ONES!"

"DAMN RIGHT YOU CAN!"

I pull out a picture from my pocket and show it to Eren's face.

"WHEN YOU SEE THIS PICTURE OF ARMIN, WHAT DO YOU WANT TO DO TO IT!?"

"KISS IT!"

"THEN DO IT!"

Eren started aggressively making out with the picture. Whispering to himself: "Oh yeah... I love your giant cock. Please give it all..."

I threw away the picture.

"DO YOU UNDERSTAND, EREN YEAGER!?"

"SIR YES SIR!"

"NOW YOU BITE YOUR HAND AND TURN INTO A GIANT NAKED DICKLESS MONSTER AND CARRY THAT GIANT BOX OF EXPLOSIVES AND PUT IT INSIDE THE TENTACLE MAN!"

"SIR YES SIR!" Eren ran to the giant box of explosives.

"What the fuck just happened." [Insert GenshinPlace member] asked.

Eren made it to the box and bit his hand. Blood dripped from his fingertips.

And then, lightning came from the sky and to Eren. Smoke covered our sights. When it all disappeared, I saw Eren's titan form. Like I expected, it was naked and dickless. It was just as big as two normal houses, not as big as Cthulu. In fact, he's like an ant compared to Cthulu.

The titan screamed and carried the giant box on his back and began to run to Cthulu.

"GO EREN!" I yelled out.

I stared at the giant beam of time travel energy that went up into the sky. I wonder where Alizeh is. Wherever she is, it is undeniable of what she has done.

But somehow, a part of me will try to defend her.

I guess that's because she's my daughter. She's family.

Eren was running towards Cthulu, dodging every single attack and obstacle while carrying hundreds of bombs.

He got close enough to jump and grab on to its legs. He climbed the beast. He came close to all the disgusting mushy surfaces of this creature, and endured the tentacles around him. But he kept climbing, he kept moving forward.

Finally, he reached the tentacles on his face, which blocked the mouth. Using his own titan strength, he attacked the tentacles and forced his way in. Eren was covered in green blood and pieces of tentacle.

And then he saw it, the little opening. The mouth. Eren screamed and threw the entire box inside and immediately jumped off into the ocean and ran for land.

"NOW, AQUA!" I shouted.

Aqua began to use her powers to move the direction of the water to the path of the Mariana Trench.

"NOW!" I told Michael, who was holding the command button for the bombs. He pressed the button.

BOOM! An explosion of goo covered every surface. Tentacles and unknown parts flew everywhere. Cthulu was consumed by fire, and his essence of goo fell into the ocean. The goo began to move away into the distance, thanks to the waters.

"Everyone! Get on Aqua's ships!" Obama shouted.

We all boarded the water army's ships and sailed to follow the goo before it regenerates back into Cthulu.

As we traversed the waters, I looked to Aqua. I didn't want her to die.

"It has to happen, Gamebang."

"Haha... I forgot you can read thoughts."

"Keep your promise to me. To be better."

We stared at each other for long while. Her long blue hair shining under the moonlight.

"I will." I told her.

She took out her hand for me to shake.

I shook her hand.

She sighed and went to the front of the deck.

I looked below the waters and there it was, the entrance to the Mariana Trench.

Coming through the waters and to the sky was the beam of time travel energy. We were close to it.

"May Focalors guide my hands to bring back water from whence it came, I promise to act upon justice for all the same. I pray upon the ancient that I may feel the cold blue enter my body, to not simply manipulate but enact good upon everybody." Aqua was praying to activate her ability to take away the waters of the Trench.

I saw that the goo was glowing. It was slowly moving towards each other.

"Shit. It's regenerating!" I said.

Aqua saw this and began to speak faster. Her body began to glow. "I pray the sights the Gods shall see will be just, I hope for what I am doing is simply a must. To act upon this prayer I must promise one reward to the light. I sacrifice myself. I sacrifice my life!"

The waters began to move and shake the ship. I fell to the floor. I was holding on for dear life. I looked at Aqua one final time.

"For the waters are vast, for the waters will consume all soon. I finish my prayer and sacrifice, I WISH TO CONSUME-" Aqua was suddenly hit in the head by a rock and fell on the ground unconscious, interrupting and stopping the spell. The waters stopped moving and remained the same.

"Huh?" I said.

"Thank you for bringing him here to me." A familiar voice in the distance said.

I look up to the sky to see Alizeh flying. Her mortal body is gone, her entire body glows teal. All that's left is her Celestial body.

"Sorry, Princess." Alizeh said. "I can't let you bring this beast back to hell yet. I have business."

"ALIZEH!" I shouted.

"Thank you for buying me time while I dispose of my mortal body. Plus, bringing him here closer to the time travel beam is convenient."

The ship began to shake more intensely than ever. I look forward and see Cthulu halfway regenerated. His large size blocks my view of Alizeh.

"Shit!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] said. "What now!?"

I came to the horrifying realization that we can't do anything.

...

"Well... Shall we settle this, Old One?" Alizeh said.

Cthulu looked at her and saw something to defeat. It's tentacles began to prepare for attack.

"There we go. That's more like it."

Alizeh summoned her bow from thin air. She infused the arrows with her power.

"Cower before me, Great Old One. You stand before the presence of The Goddess of Wind."

She aimed her bow at Cthulu as it charged to her.

"As my other father used to say... Time for takeoff."

Chapter 10: A Great Old One vs The Goddess of Wind.

Gamebang POV

Alizeh shot her arrow the winds sucked Cthulu into the sky. She shot another arrow that annihilated the entire right arm of the beast. The goo fell and covered our ships.

Cthulu screamed the unholy, making all of us cover our ears to not die. Alizeh didn't, causing her slight discomfort and an uneasiness to her flying. But she didn't waste time hurting, she shot another arrow. It missed. She made an agitated grunt and shot another. It pierced all the way through the chest to the back, leaving a hole. She immediately flew to Cthulu, dodging and destroying all the tentacles that came her way to kill her. As she approached the hole in his chest, she powered up an arrow. She went inside and stuck the arrow in a random place and went out the other side and flew far away. Behind her, Cthulu exploded from the wind from the arrow filling his insides. All of the goo fell underwater, Alizeh followed it.

"Ow..." Aqua awoke from her sleep. "Did I die yet?"

"N-No. You were kinda hit in the head." Obama said.

"So... Our plan failed?"

"I wouldn't say failed... Maybe we forgot about some outside forces that's currently fighting Cthulu herself."

"Huh?"

"She's doing quite well, actually. She did our plan in seconds."

"Well... Do we help her?"

"That, I don't know. Because if we do, she gets hold of that giant beam in the sky. But if we don't, she might get killed and Cthulu destroys the world."

"Well... Can't we just help her for now and then stop her after Cthulu is defeated?"

"No matter what we do, the power of Cthulu will remain." I stated. "Alizeh wants to defeat Cthulu to obtain his powers. His powers would give her the ability to consume the unreal amount of time travel energy that's currently being shot up in the sky."

"Then how about we go back into the Challenger Deep and find a way to destroy the time machine? Destroying it means no giant beam, right? It's the only thing in the world that can do what it needs to do." Aqua suggested.

I think about it. "... That can work."

"Normally, I'd be against destroying the time machine." Obama said. "But in this case... I guess I'll help."

"How would we destroy it?" Morbius asked. "Me and Eren tried. We couldn't find any solution."

"It's relatively simple to destroy. What was stopping you two?"

"It was already emitting the beam when we got to it. That beam is it's sort of shield. We would've died if we had gotten close to it."

"Okay... Uh..." Obama was scratching his head. "We'll keep thinking."

Alizeh saw the goo grow back into tentacles underwater. Those body parts swiftly swam to her and attacked her. She shot each one down with her arrows. However, she didn't see one coming and was plummeted deeper into the ocean at an alarming speed. When she landed into the Challenger Deep with an impossible force of strength, she was severely injured. She didn't bleed however, since her mortal body was gone.

In her anger for what happened, she used an abnormal amount of wind to make herself and the tentacle that attacked her fly back to the surface at the same speed that brought her down. Both her and the tentacle came back above water and she punched the living hell out of it, turning it back to goo.

Her senses alarmed danger, and she dodged the goo attack from behind her. She looked to see Cthulu halfway formed again. She aimed her bow and shot another arrow at the water itself. The arrow exploded into wind that created a giant whirlpool that sucked Cthulu and the ships in.

"AH SHIT!" I shouted.

"KEEP ROWING THE SHIPS! FASTER!" Aqua yelled to every soldier with us.

"They're not strong enough..." [Insert GenshinPlace member] said. "They don't have the strength to keep us away."

"Ah well FUCK." I fell to my knees.

The ship was uncontrollably shaking, making many of our supplies fall into the waters, including the chemical weapons, which began to affect the water.

"Well..." Obama said. "So much for that plan to go back into the ocean for the time machine. We will die if we enter that water."

"CAN YOU PEOPLE NOT POLLUTE THE OCEAN FOR ONE GODDAMN SECOND!?" Aqua shouted.

One of our soldiers fell off the ship and into the chemical infused waters. They screamed for help as their skin was burnt.

"OH GOD." I kept yelling. "I DON'T WANNA DIE!"

As our ships moved closer to the whirlpool Cthulu was in, I embraced death.

And then our ship started moving away slowly.

"Huh?" I was confused until I looked down into the waters.

There they were, riding a vehicle they stole from Atlantis to protect themselves from the poisoned waters while pushing our ships away.

"GAMEBANG! WE TOLD YOU WE'D BE BACK FOR YOU!" One of them yelled.

"PRISON ARMY!!" I happily exclaimed.

"We'd be able to move your ships faster if it weren't for the fact we had to rely on these vehicles to live." Another one of them said.

"Don't worry, my loyal followers. I got something."

I ran to Aqua. "Can't you purify water or something?"

"Oh yeah, I forgot I can do that."

Aqua went to the edge of the ship and started praying.

"May the Gods use me to bless these waters anew, bring them back to their purest form and filth shall be very few. Purification!"

Magic started coming from her hands to the waters, which turned it back to normal. My prison army began to swim back into the sea and push our ships faster.

Cthulu broke himself out of the whirlpool by brute force, causing massive waves to follow as he flew into the sky. He began to shoot goo at Alizeh, who was dodging each one. She reached his head and punched it so hard it exploded. As the headless Cthulu caught Alizeh with its own hand, it used its Godlike powers to manipulate her eyes, causing her to see things that aren't real.

Alizeh managed to free herself from Cthulu, but then the oceans started turning red in her eyes. Then, the waters became solid, and out from the ground came massive tentacles. And then the clouds were shining as bright as stars, closing her eyes to not be blinded. When she opened them, it looked like she in another plane of existence. A void that flashed colors that don't exist, with galaxies that collide with one another every second, with Cthulu reigning on top of it all. Alizeh knew these sights to be fake, and kept pursuing attack.

Her sights changed again, as she found herself in R'yleh again, traversing it's impossible structures. Cthulu appeared and chased after Alizeh, destroying buildings and castles as they flew. As one building was about to smash Alizeh, her sights changed again.

Here, she was in a place of pure blue, but everything moved in impossible proportions. She was seeing herself in the 4th Dimension. If left was right, then up was backwards. She didn't know how to dodge Cthulu, since her sense of direction was heavily warped. She took multiple lethal hits to her body.

Her sights changed once again, and she was in space. She looked behind to see what looked to be a yellow tree with an impossible to count amount of branches. The size of this tree was comparable to superclusters. Planets and galaxies were being attached to this tree's branches. It was the thing that every single object in the universe was being attracted to. The Great Attractor.

Alizeh herself and Cthulu were being moved closer to the tree. They battled in fists as they flew across oblivion.

Her sights changed again while in battle. They were at a Pulsar Wind Nebula that looked like a hand reaching out for something above it. They were at The Hand of God Nebula.

As Alizeh looked for any escape from these illusions, Cthulu's hand phased through the Hand of God as if it was his own and went down to smash Alizeh into eternity.

As the hand came crashing down on her, she began using her own power to its limit. She screamed for pain as she prepared a counterattack. The power of the wind fully consumed her.

The Hand came closer and closer, and she went for a punch that was more powerful than she was used to.

The Hand and her fist came into devastating contact, the illusion was broken and the space around them broke like glass.

They were back in the ocean, and the glass shards of the illusion fell into the waters.

As another result of the punch, Cthulu exploded once again into goo. Alizeh needed to breathe and plan her next move.

...

"Holy shit." Aqua said. "She's not gonna make it."

"No, she's gonna live." I said. I didn't want Alizeh to die.

"No matter what she does, Cthulu will regenerate back."

"But she can bring him back to R'yleh, like we planned!"

"But that's not her goal, isn't it."

"...No, it's not."

"Then what then, Gamebang. That's your daughter."

"..."

"Gamebang, we haven't done anything but think."

"I... I don't know what to do."

"...She can't defeat him. It'll never happen. Before the next day even happens, she'll already be dead."

...

Alizeh sees the goo start to regenerate and she panics. She doesn't know what to do. And for all she knows, Cthulu could bring her to more mind bending illusions. What the beast can do, she began to be afraid of.

She aimed her bow at the regenerating devil. Her hands shaking and sweating.

"Please..." She whispered to herself. "I just...want to fix everything. Please... Give me the chance to do so..."

As Cthulu was almost done regenerating, Alizeh's eyes widened.

Suddenly, she wasn't so afraid anymore, but determined.

Cthulu had finished regenerating and immediately went to attack Alizeh. She shot a powerful bow to Cthulu, destroying his entire body except his head. The goo and the head fell into the ocean. Alizeh flew to it.

She stood on his face.

"I have a proposal to you..."

Cthulu screamed at her.

"No... I think you'll like it."

Cthulu remained angry.

"How about a chance to go back home?"

Cthulu's red eyes widened.

"Yes... Back to the Court. Where the others are."

Cthulu remained silent and listened.

"I will bring you back to the Court of Azathoth. In exchange, you give me all of you."

She took her hand out.

"Do we have a deal?"

Silence.

Cthulu brought out one of his smaller tentacles and shook Alizeh's hand.

The goo around them began to all surround Alizeh. She closes her eyes. The goo consumes Alizeh and the head and turns into a giant floating red ball that floats in the sky.

"ALIZEH!?" I shouted.

"W-What the hell did she do?" Michael asked.

"GUYS!" Obama said. "THE TIME MACHINE! AQUA REMOVED ALL THE CHEMICALS! WE NEED TO GET IN THERE NOW!"

Me, [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, Michael, and Obama put on our equipment that made us safe last time, including our suits, and we jumped off the ships.

As I was underwater, I looked above me to see the giant red ball cracking like glass.

"WE'RE NOT GONNA MAKE IT TO THE MACHINE ON TIME!" Eren yelled out.

"JUST KEEP MOVING!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] said.

As we approached the entrance of the Mariana Trench, a knife was thrown at us. We all thankfully dodged it, but we looked to see that someone was attacking us.

Michael couldn't believe it.

"COM!?"

"Com Insydeme..." Obama said.

"WE HAD A DEAL!" Michael was furious.

"But... Alizeh is close to finishing her goal. I'd rather switch back to the winning team..."

"COM, YOU ASSHOLE!"

"I'M SORRY, MICHAEL. I NEED WHAT ALIZEH HAS PROMISED ME!" Com threw more knives at us.

"YOU LITTLE SHIIITTT!!" Michael swam to Com swiftly, punching him as many times as he can. Com tried to fight back, but Michael was too angry. While they both battled, Com did his best to make sure we didn't even enter the Trench. He threw every weapon he had at us. Some of us actually got hit and broke some of our equipment and suits. If we took a single leg into that hole, we'd be attacked immediately.

And before we knew it, we had no time left.

The red ball exploded into pieces that faded to dust, leaving a floating figure.

"SHIT!" I went back up to see what was going on.

"GAMEBANG!" [Insert GenshinPlace member] yelled out.

There she was, in the orange skies. Alizeh...had her mortal form again. Or at least, it looked like her mortal form. It looked like my daughter again.

And then, she turned one of her arms into a tentacle that resembled Cthulu's and back to her normal arm. She had fused with Cthulu himself.

She looked to the giant beam of time travel energy and started flying to it.

That's when I knew she'd be unstoppable.

"PRISON ARMY! STOP HER!" I commanded them.

"YES SIR!" They followed my orders.

They shot all their weapons at her, but she made the same unholy sounds Cthulu made and half of my army's heads exploded.

Aqua went to attack her, using everything she had. All her abilities, all her prayers. But Alizeh simply blocked all of them. Before long, Alizeh shot goo to their ships and destroyed them. Aqua was hit and left unconscious in the rubble of her navy.

Everything we had, it's all destroyed.

Michael managed to knock Com unconscious, but it was too late.

Alizeh had reached the beam of time travel, and she placed her hand on it.

The beam stopped going into the sky and into her body. She screamed in pain as she began to glow multiple colors.

We saw that the energy of time travel was traveling the beam at a much faster speed. We could only assume Alizeh was speeding it up. It began to move at the speed of light, and Alizeh was in excruciating pain. I could only watch.

The beam began to glow brighter than ever. Alizeh's glow was just pure light now. Her screams became louder.

BOOM!

The beam exploded into light that blinded everyone for a minute.

When our visions were restored, the beam was gone.

Alizeh was standing on water, with what looked to be time travel energy on her hand.

She spoke.

"I have consumed every bit of the Celestial Meteor, thanks to the Time Machine. I have become one with Cthulu himself and now wield his powers. I have rejected my mortal form and embraced to be the Goddess of Wind. But now, I have gone beyond. I now wield TIME in my hands."

She loudly declared to the skies.

"I am Alizeh! Body of Cthulu, daughter to Barbatos, Goddess of Wind, and now! THE ARCHON OF TIME!"

She looked at me with a smile.

"Don't worry, dad... I'll make the world a better place. I promise."

She aimed her hand at the sky, and shot something. I don't know what, but it was powerful enough to knock me and the gang unconscious. But before I fell asleep, I heard a loud crack.

...

The sun has just risen from the night. The sky turns more blue each second. It is morning. The birds chirp as if nothing ever happened.

Me, [Insert GenshinPlace member], Eren, Morbius, Michael, and Obama land in a nearby beach after being out for a while. We're soaking wet.

And then, we wake up.

"Where are we?" I asked.

"A beach. Not the battlefield we fought in. Just a normal beach..." Obama said.

We all collectively took a breather. We just sat down and tried to consume everything that had happened.

"Yo, guys. There's coconuts here." Michael found a jungle.

We knocked down the coconuts and cracked them open. We hadn't exactly drank in a while, so we consumed a shit ton of coconut.

I sat beside the sea and watched the clouds move.

The waves wash my bloodied feet, taking what was once part of me away.

I remember when Alizeh cried over failing an exam, I just let her sit on my shoulder and I listened to what she had to say.

I wondered where I went wrong, maybe it wasn't my fault afterall, that thought I held.

But it doesn't matter whether or not it was, I will always keep blaming myself.

You reap what you sow, I told myself whenever I was consumed by the worst of me.

From these mortal binds that hurt Alizeh, maybe that's why she wanted to be free.

But I really do wish above all that I was there for when she cried.

But I wasn't, so what good does it do if I had died.

No, I promised Aqua that I'd be better and finally be through.

But how does one start to be better? What do you do?

I don't know, but I know I will reject reaping what you sow from now on.

It doesn't matter what it takes, I will be back on this beach one day and all this grief will be gone.

"Guys, something is happening." Eren said.

We all heard it. That cracking sound.

We all looked to the sky, which was cracking like glass.

And then, the sky broke.

I look to me and the others, our bodies are acting weird. They're moving incredibly fast, their proportions are distorting, weird boxes of any color appear on us.

We're glitching.

The brøken sky begins to go back and forth from night to morning to rain to winter. The trees die and grow again, the waters BOil and then freäze.
